

CULTURE COMMITTEE'S STRATEGIC FORWARD WORK PROGRAMME – JANUARY 2001-JULY 2002

Duties of the Committee

1. Standing orders 9.7 and 9.8 set out the responsibilities of subject committees.

"9.7 Each subject committee shall

- i. contribute to the development of the Assembly's policies within the fields for which the relevant Assembly Secretary is accountable to the Assembly;
- ii. keep under review the expenditure and administration connected with their implementation; and
- iii. keep under review the discharge of public functions in those fields by public, voluntary and private bodies.

"9.8 Each subject committee shall also, within the relevant fields,

- i. advise on proposed legislation affecting Wales, including performing its functions under standing order 22;
- ii. provide advice to the Assembly Cabinet on matters relating to allocation of the Assembly's budget in accordance with standing order 19;
- iii. perform its function under standing order 21 (complaints);
- iv. perform any functions assigned to it under the Code of Practice on Public Appointments Procedure made by the Assembly under standing order 20; and
- v. consider matters referred to it by the Assembly within its fields."

Aims and objectives

2. The committee has resolved to focus on those areas of policy development where they can make the greatest impact. The committee will also seek to contribute to the achievement of the aims and objectives set out in Better Wales, in particular, promoting active citizenship, creativity and entrepreneurship; raising the international profile and influence of Wales and establishing it as a first class place to live, study, visit and do business; extending access to and awareness of the Welsh language, culture, heritage and sporting opportunities.

Priorities

3. The Committee will be seeking to develop a strategic approach to its work, focusing in greater depth on a small number of priority issues:

- examining the implications of the British Government's communications White Paper for Wales
- undertaking a policy review of the Welsh language
- undertaking a policy review of sport

Other issues

4. Other items of committee business will include:

- regular performance reviews of the Assembly Sponsored Public Bodies (ASPBs) that fall under its remit (Standing Order 9.7(iii));
- consideration of proposals for the Assembly's budget (SO 9.8(ii));
- consideration of Secondary legislation as appropriate (SO 9.8(I) and 22);
- scrutiny of the Assembly Secretary (SO 9.11).

5. A detailed work programme for the period January 2001 – July 2002 is attached at annex A.
