

Amendment - Kirsty Williams (Brecon and Radnorshire):

Add as new point at end of motion:

"Believes that local authorities should be able to adopt 'alternative arrangements' through a two-thirds vote of the full council; in place of the unanimity presently required."