

Education and Lifelong Learning Committee 5 December 2002

Motion and Subsequent Amendments: University Top-up Fees

Helen Mary Jones proposed the following motion on 20 November:

"This Committee firmly opposes the concept of University top-up fees".

Jonathan Morgan proposed the following amendment on 20 November:

After "fees" add: ", and calls on the United Kingdom Government to abolish tuition fees."

Lorraine Barrett proposed the following amendment on 28 November:

After "fees" add: ", and welcomes the actions taken to implement the recommendations in the Rees report on student hardship and funding by the Welsh Assembly Government."

The Committee will consider the motion and amendments on 5 December.