LEGISLATION COMMITTEE REPORT

The Education (School Day and School Year) (Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2001

Background

These Regulations amend the Education (School Day and School Year) (Wales) Regulations 2000, by extending the period within which school sessions may be devoted wholly or mainly to the training of teachers in school teachers' appraisal, the school teachers' pay system and school staffing structures.

Similar provisions came into force in England on 23rd December 1999, for which a reference (indicating that there are no reporting points) can be found in the fourth report of the Joint Committee on Statutory Instruments under the heading 'Instruments subject to annulment'.

Standing Order 11.5

No points have been identified as matters in respect of which the Committee needs to invite the National Assembly to pay special attention.
