REPORT*The Single Education Plan (Wales) Regulations 2006

These Regulations require children's services authorities in Wales who are local education authorities to prepare and publish a Single Education Plan (in place of the current requirement to produce four main education plans) setting out the authority's strategy for discharging their education responsibilities towards children and young people. The Regulations also prescribe the content, duration, consultation requirements, adoption date, and publication date of Plans together with Targets for attainment, attendance and exclusion.
