Annwyl Mr Jones,

CYFEIRIADAU POST

Ers ad-drefnu llywodraeth leol, mae'r Post Brenhinol wedi parhau i ddefnyddio 'Gwynedd' yn hytrach nag 'Ynys Môn' ar gyfeiriadau post. Mae'r mater hwn yn destun pryder i'r Cyngor Sir a chyflwynwyd sylwadau arno eisoes i'r Post Brenhinol.

Cyflwynwyd yr adroddiad sydd ynghlwm i Bwyllgor Polisi ac Adnoddau'r Cyngor ar 23 Tachwedd, 1999 ac mae'n crynhoi'r materion o bwys yn yr achos hwn. Mae Mr Ieuan Wyn Jones AS/AC a Phwyllgor Ymgynghorol y Post a Thelathrebu (Arfon, Dwyfor, Môn) yn cefnogi safiad y Cyngor yn hyn o beth.

Penderfynodd y Pwyllgor dderbyn yr argymhelliad yn yr adroddiad a gofynnwyd i mi ddwyn sylw Cymdeithas Llywodraeth Leol Cymru a Phwyllgor Rhanbathol Cynulliad Cenedlaethol Cymru at bryderon y Cyngor.

Letter dated 31 January 2000 from Geraint Edwards, Managing Director, Anglesey County Council to Gareth Jones AM

Dear Mr Jones,

POSTAL ADDRESSES

Since local government re-organisation, Royal Mail have retained the use of `Gwynedd' as opposed to 'Ynys Môn/Isle of Anglesey' on postal addresses. This issue is of concern to the County Council and has been the subject of representations to Royal Mail.

The attached report submitted to the Council's Policy and Resources Committee on the 23rd November, 1999 summarises the issues of relevance in this matter. The Council's position is supported by both Mr. Ieuan Wyn Jones MP/AM and the Post and Telecommunications Advisory Committee (Arfon, Dwyfor, Môn).

The Committee resolved to accept the recommendation in the report and that I be requested to highlight the Council's concerns to both the WLGA and the Regional Committee of the National Assembly for Wales.

Felly, byddwn yn ddiolchgar petai Pwyllgor Rhanbarth Gogledd Cymru yn gallu ystyried y mater hwn a dwyn pwysau ar y Post Brenhinol i newid ei safiad.

Edrychaf ymlaen at glywed gennych.

Yr eiddoch yn gywir,

Geraint F. Edwards
RHEOLWR GYFARWYDDWR

Accordingly, I should be grateful if the North Wales Regional Committee would consider this matter and bring pressure on Royal Mail to change its stance.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours sincerely,

Geraint F. Edwards
MANAGING DIRECTOR
