5. Welsh Conservatives Debate (60 mins)

NDM5092 William Graham (South Wales East)

The National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the important role of the Welsh high street as a centre for community engagement, boosting local economies and enhancing civic pride;
2. Notes the challenges facing the Welsh high street, including high vacancy rates, the rise of internet shopping and the development of out-of-town retail centres;
3. Notes the proposals set out in the policy paper 'A Vision for the Welsh High Street'; and
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to explore the proposals outlined in 'A Vision for the Welsh High Street' and to publish a response detailing how they will incorporate these proposals into their on-going regeneration review.

Amendment 3 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

In point 4, delete 'A Vision for the Welsh High Street' and replace with 'the Business and Enterprise Committee's report: Regeneration of town centres dated January 2012'

The Business and Enterprise Committee's report: Regeneration of town centres can be found on the following link:

<http://www.assemblywales.org/bus-home/bus-business-fourth-assembly-laid-docs/cr-ld8771-e.pdf?langoption=3&ttl=CR-LD8771%20-%20Report%20by%20the%20Enterprise%20and%20Business%20Committee%20on%20the%20Regeneration%20of%20town%20centres>

Amendment 4 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Add as a new point at end of motion:

Calls for greater powers for communities to mitigate the impact of out-of-town retail centres on local shopping, regenerate local town centres and lower business rates for community facilities in town centres to encourage re-location.

Amendment 5 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Add as a new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh government to develop a programme to spread best practice in town centre regeneration across Wales.

Amendment 6 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Add as a new point at the end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to work with local authorities to offer reductions in business rates to tenants who are either new to the area or are expanding an existing business and who are taking over the lease of a property that has been empty for at least 12 months as a means of encouraging new and expanding businesses to Welsh High Streets to encourage re-generation.

6. Plaid Cymru Debate (60 mins)

NDM5091 Jocelyn Davies (South Wales East)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the recent rises in energy prices and regrets the impact that this will have on all households in Wales, especially the fuel poor;
2. Regrets that the UK Government has failed to regulate the energy market to protect those living in fuel poverty; and
3. Calls on the Welsh Government to establish a plan for upgrading the energy efficiency ratings of the entire Welsh housing stock, prioritising the fuel poor.

The following amendments have been tabled:

[If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be deselected]

Amendment 1 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Delete point 2 and replace with:

Notes the UK Government's Green Deal that will:

- a) ensure energy companies will be required, under the new Energy Company Obligation (ECO), to focus their assistance on the poorest and most vulnerable households, as well as those in hard to treat properties which cannot achieve financial savings without a measure of support;
- b) ensure many people will be able to pay back the upfront costs of home insulation work through the lower bills that be achieved by home improvements; and
- c) ensure that energy companies communicate with customers to ensure that they are on the most appropriate tariff according to their needs;

Amendment 2 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Delete point 2 and replace with:

Welcomes UK Government plans to use the forthcoming Energy Bill to legislate on low tariffs for all customers.

Amendment 3 – Jane Hutt (Vale of Glamorgan)

In point 3 delete 'establish a plan for upgrading the energy efficiency ratings of the entire' and replace with 'build on its existing work in upgrading the energy efficiency ratings of'

Amendment 4 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as a new point 3 and renumber accordingly:

Calls on the Welsh Government to work in conjunction with the UK Government's Green Deal to improve the energy efficiency of Welsh homes.

Amendment 5 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Add a new point at end of motion:

Notes that the significant increase in the wholesale price of gas is largely responsible for the recent rises in energy prices, and calls on the Welsh Government to continue to pursue renewable energy generation alternatives for the benefit of the Welsh public and the nation's energy security.

Amendment 6 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Add as a new point at the end of motion:

Deeply regrets that between 2008 and 2011, the number of homes in fuel poverty in Wales rose from 28% to 33.5%.

Amendment 7 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Welcomes the UK Government's introduction of the Energy Company Obligation (ECO) to help those most in need and for properties that are harder to treat and calls on the Welsh Government to ensure that its own energy efficiency schemes complement rather than unnecessarily duplicate the ECO.

Amendment 8 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Urges the Welsh Government to maximise the benefits of the UK Government's Green Deal policy.

Voting Time

7. Short Debate (30 mins)

NDM5093 Mark Drakeford (Cardiff West):

Social Impact Bonds and Looked After Children in Wales

Exploring a new approach to providing services which can reduce the number of children received into the care of local authorities in Wales.

The Assembly will sit again in Plenary at 13:30, Tuesday, 20 November 2012
