8 Welsh Conservatives debate – Regulation of animal rescue and rehoming centres

(60 mins)

NDM7840 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Believes that a pet is for life, not just for Christmas or a special occasion.
2. Notes that there are an unknown number of animal rescue and rehoming centres in Wales.
3. Further notes the Welsh Government's Animal Welfare Plan for Wales 2021–26.
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to make amendments to the Animal Welfare (Licensing of Activities Involving Animals) (Wales) Regulations 2021 to:

- a) introduce regulations for rescue and rehoming centres and sanctuaries in Wales, including those operating online, by 2023;
- b) require any individual rehoming more than three animals over a 12-month period to declare their activities and obtain a licence from their local authority;
- c) ensure minimum training, staffing and environmental standards for all centres to meet to ensure the welfare of animals in their care.

The Animal Welfare \(Licensing of Activities Involving Animals\) \(Wales\) Regulations 2021

The following amendment has been tabled:

Amendment 1. Lesley Griffiths \(Wrexham\)

Delete point 4 and add new points:

Recognises the vital work of local authority animal welfare inspectors as fundamental in upholding high animal welfare standards.

Calls on the Welsh Government to:

- a) introduce regulation for animal welfare establishments in Wales, such as rescue and rehoming centres and sanctuaries, including those operating online;
- b) develop arrangements to safeguard minimum training, staffing and environmental standards to ensure the welfare of animals in animal welfare establishments;
- c) improve the qualifications for animal welfare inspectors to raise their professional status;
- d) support local authorities to strengthen their resilience to help manage the uneven distribution of animal welfare establishments across Wales;
- e) publically consult on how individuals rehoming animals should declare their activities under licence from their local authority.
