5 Welsh Conservatives debate – Obesity

(30 mins)

NDM7903 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Expresses its concern that nearly two-thirds of adults in Wales are currently overweight or obese.
2. Notes that COVID-19 has a disproportionate effect on those living with obesity, with more than half of critical care admissions having a BMI of over 30.
3. Further notes that weight-management services were paused or adapted as the Welsh NHS treated COVID patients.
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to:
 - a) urgently reopen those weight-management services which have been paused during the pandemic;
 - b) indicate when specialist multidisciplinary weight-management services will be expanded across Wales; and
 - c) provide extra funding to ensure that weight-management services are able to cope with increased need.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 Lesley Griffiths \(Wrexham\)

Delete point 4 and replace with:

Acknowledges:

a) the new 2022–24 delivery plan, due to launch on 1 March, which supports the Healthy Weight: Healthy Wales Strategy and aims to prevent and reduce obesity over the next two years.

b) the £5.8m investment into obesity services accompanying the plan, to enable health boards to deliver a revised All Wales Weight Management Pathway and equitable services, including specialist multidisciplinary weight-management services in Wales.

Healthy Weight: Healthy Wales

Amendment 2 Siân Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to prioritise preventative measures to reduce obesity in Wales, such as:

- a) investing in resources to promote physical activity in all communities;
- b) improving health education;
- c) increasing the time allocated to physical education lessons in schools;
- d) Investigate the use of taxation tools to encourage a better diet.

6 Welsh Conservatives debate – Adverse childhood experiences

(30 mins)

NDM7905 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Recognises the impact that adverse childhood experiences have on health, educational attainment and substance abuse later on in life.
2. Believes that greater focus should be given to preventing child abuse and neglect than dealing with the outcomes.

3. Calls on the Welsh Government to set a target of reducing child abuse, neglect and other adverse childhood experiences by 70 per cent by 2030.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 Siân Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Delete all after point 1, and replace with:

Believes that tackling distress during childhood and early intervention must be prioritised in order to give the best start to all children in Wales.

Notes the evidence that there has been an increase in adverse childhood experiences as a result of COVID-19.

[If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be de-selected]

Amendment 2 Lesley Griffiths \(Wrexham\)

Delete point 3.

Amendment 3 Siân Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to ensure that there will be clear targets in the adverse childhood experiences plan that will be published this summer to measure its effectiveness.

Amendment 4 Siân Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to incorporate the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child fully into Welsh law.

7 Welsh Conservatives debate – 70th Anniversary of the accession
(60 mins)

NDM7904 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Extends its warmest congratulations to Her Majesty the Queen on the occasion of the 70th anniversary of her accession to the throne.

8 Plaid Cymru debate – Stalking

(60 mins)

NDM7906 Siân Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Regrets the increases in violence and harassment against women, noting that stalking offences reported to police increased by 30 per cent in Wales between 2020 and 2021.

2. Calls on the Welsh Government to:

a) use the new curriculum and other resources to foster a culture that prevents the occurrence of stalking in the first place;

b) produce guidance for planning bodies that ensures women's safety is considered in the design of public spaces;

c) work with Police and Crime Commissioners to improve police handling of stalking, ensuring police are trained to handle the real nature of stalking and that stalking protection orders are being utilised;

d) provides specialist support for survivors of stalking;

e) commit to pursuing the devolution of powers over policing and justice to Wales so that it can fully tackle the crime of stalking and make misogyny a hate crime in Wales.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

Add as new point after point 1 and renumber accordingly:

Welcomes both the Stalking Protection Act 2019 and the amendment to the Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill to make misogyny a hate crime in England and Wales.

Stalking Protection Act 2019

Police, Crime, Sentencing and Courts Bill

Amendment 2 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

In point 2 (c), after 'work with' insert 'police forces and'

Amendment 3 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

In point 2, delete sub-point (e) and replace with:

'ensure that perpetrator programmes are available across Wales'
