6 Member Debate under Standing Order 11.21(iv) – Impact of migraine on children and young people

The item started at 15.12

NDM8074 Mark Isherwood \(North Wales\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes:

- a) the impact that migraine has on the 1 in 10 children and young people who live with it, including at school and their day-to-day lives;
- b) that young people who are affected often report that migraine makes it harder to do their schoolwork, meaning that without proper support, the condition can impact their educational attainment, as well as disrupt their family and social life;
- c) that research by the Migraine Trust suggests that education and health professionals often do not understand migraine, or have access to training and resources to effectively support children and young people who are impacted;

2. Calls on the Welsh Government to work with The Migraine Trust and representative bodies for schools, health services, and parents/carers to:

- a) strengthen guidance;
- b) provide training on how to support and accommodate young people impacted by migraine; and
- c) provide resources for the parents/carers of children living with migraine and for the young people themselves on how to take control of their own care.

8 Welsh Conservatives Debate – Major events

The item started at 16.32

Voting on the motion and amendments under this item was deferred until Voting Time.

A vote was taken on the motion without amendment:

NDM8086 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes the Welsh Government's National Events Strategy for Wales 2022 to 2030.

2. Believes that major events help to boost jobs and the economy by showcasing Wales to the world.

3. Regrets the lack of ambition shown by the Welsh Government in bringing these opportunities to Wales.

4. Calls on the Welsh Government to rethink the strategy with a focus on aspiration, creativity and innovation in attracting major events to Wales.

The motion without amendment was not agreed.

The following amendments were tabled:

Amendment 1 Sian Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to ensure that Wales's culture, heritage and the Welsh language are further embedded in the strategy, including major homegrown events such as the National Eisteddfod, and that we embrace the use of Cymru rather than Wales internationally.

A vote was taken on amendment 1:
