8 Debate on a Member's Legislative Proposal – A Wales tourism Bill

(30 mins)

NDM8232 Tom Giffard \(South Wales West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes a proposal to create a Wales tourism Bill.

2. Notes that the purpose of this Bill would be to:

- a) revoke the Wales Tourist Board (Transfer of Functions to the National Assembly for Wales and Abolition) Order 2005;
- b) create a new board of tourism for Wales;
- c) transfer the functions of Visit Wales and associated Welsh Government powers to the new board, including but not exclusive to:
 - i) encouraging people to visit Wales and people living in Wales and the United Kingdom to take their holidays there;
 - ii) encouraging the provision and improvement of tourist amenities and facilities in Wales;
 - iii) promotion of publicity;
 - iv) provision of advisory and information services; and
 - v) establishment of committees to advise it in the performance of its functions.

9 Welsh Conservatives Debate – Local government funding

(60 mins)

NDM8238 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes that local authorities have an estimated £2.75 billion in useable reserves.
2. Recognises the vital role that local authorities play in delivering public services across Wales and the funding challenges they face.
3. Regrets that the average council tax rise in Wales for 2023–2024 is 5.5 per cent.
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to:
 - a) commission an independent review of the Welsh local government funding formula;
 - b) work with local authorities to use their useable reserves to keep council tax as low as possible;
 - c) require any local authority proposing an excessive increase in council tax to hold a local referendum and obtain a yes vote before implementing the proposed rise.

The following amendments were tabled:

Amendment 1 Lesley Griffiths \(Wrexham\)

Delete all after point 1 and replace with:

Recognises council tax as one of the most regressive forms of taxation, disproportionately impacting on poorer areas and welcomes the Co-operation Agreement commitment to make the system fairer and more progressive;

Recognises the vital role local authorities play in delivering public services across Wales, the significant increases in the local government settlement in 2022–2023 and 2023–24 and the funding challenges authorities nevertheless face.

Notes that the average band D council tax in Wales is £186 less than the average in England.

Calls on the Welsh Government to:

a) continue to develop and maintain the Welsh local government funding formula in partnership with local government;

b) continue to recognise the importance of local democratic decision making on council budgets and public services.

The Co-operation Agreement 2021

If amendment 1 is agreed, amendments 2 and 3 will be de-selected.

Amendment 2 Sian Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

In point 4, delete sub-points (b) and (c).

Amendment 3 Sian Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Add as new points at end of motion:

Recognises that council tax is one of the most regressive forms of taxation and disproportionately impacts on poorer areas of the country.

Welcomes the commitment through the Plaid Cymru and Welsh Government Co-operation Agreement to make the council tax system fairer and more progressive.

10 Welsh Conservatives Debate – Palliative care

(60 mins)

NDM8239 Darren Millar \(Clwyd West\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes the Cross-Party Group on Hospice and Palliative Care's inquiry, Experiences of palliative and end of life care in the community during the COVID-19 pandemic.
2. Acknowledges that during the COVID-19 pandemic, hospice and palliative care played a critical role, and went above and beyond in supporting patients and their families.
3. Regrets that during the COVID-19 pandemic, some people faced difficulties accessing end of life care at home and in care homes, despite the best efforts of those working in health and social care.
4. Recognises that demand for palliative care in the community is forecast to double by 2040 and that the pandemic has given a glimpse into how the health and social care system will cope under similar pressures in the not-so-distant future.
5. Calls on the Welsh Government to:
 - a) work with the palliative care sector to learn from the COVID-19 pandemic, and ensure palliative care is at the heart of plans for potential future pandemics;
 - b) prioritise the development of palliative care capacity in the community, upscale existing good practice, and capture all loved ones, including children;
 - c) ensure that workforce and funding decisions prioritise the wellbeing, staffing, education and training needs of those working across the full spectrum of palliative and end-of-life care.
