5 Member Debate under Standing Order 11.21(iv) – Needs of the deaf community

(60 mins)

NDM8734 Mark Isherwood \(North Wales\)

To propose that the Senedd

1. Notes:

- a) the need for service providers to meet the needs of the deaf community;
- b) that people with hearing loss are severely disadvantaged compared to people who have unaffected hearing;
- c) that BSL is the preferred method of communication for many deaf people; and
- d) concern about the decision by Qualifications Wales not to progress with a GCSE in sign language.

2. Calls on the Welsh Government:

- a) to ensure that the disability rights taskforce specifically captures the issues and barriers that affect the lives of deaf people: and
- b) to have a greater involvement with the deaf community to ascertain their needs.

6 Welsh Conservatives Debate – Local government finance

(60 mins)

NDM8838 Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Recognises the crucial role that councils play in delivering local public services and the funding challenges they face.

2. Notes that councils hold over £2 billion in usable reserves.

3. Regrets that the proposed average council tax rise in Wales for 2025–2026 financial year is 7.36 per cent.

4. Calls on the Welsh Government to:

a) commission an independent review of the Welsh local government funding formula;

b) work with councils to use their usable reserves to keep council tax as low as possible;

c) require any council proposing a council tax rise of 5 per cent or more to hold a local referendum and obtain a yes vote before implementing the proposed rise;

d) reduce the bureaucracy of Welsh local government to make it more efficient;

e) coordinate with councils to ensure cross-council working and the sharing of resources and services, along with an increase in digitalisation where possible, to ensure efficient delivery of services and to cut costs; and

f) work with local government to develop a business-like culture to ensure effective use of tax-payer funding, whilst cutting waste and reducing spend on vanity projects.

The following amendments were tabled:

Amendment 1 Heledd Fychan \(South Wales Central\)

Delete all after point 1 and replace with:

Regrets:

a) that the proposed average council tax rise in Wales for 2025–2026 financial year is 7.36 per cent;

b) the impact of 14 years of austerity under the previous UK Conservative Government on the ability of councils to deliver public services; and

c) that the local government settlement for 2025–26 will leave local authorities having to consider substantial council tax rises and further cuts to public services.

Calls on the Welsh Government to:

a) commission an independent review of the Welsh local government funding formula;

b) make urgent representations to the UK Government regarding the rise to national insurance contributions to reduce the burden on Welsh council finances; and

c) explore the feasibility of introducing a minimum funding floor as part of the local government settlement for 2026–27.

If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be de-selected.

Amendment 2 Jane Hutt \(Vale of Glamorgan\)

Delete points 3 and 4 and replace with:

Notes councils make decisions about council tax based on their local circumstances.

Welcomes the provision of a floor in the local government settlement at 3.8 per cent.

Notes that:

a) councils will receive more than £6 billion through the final local government settlement and £1.3 billion additional specific grants in 2025–26; and

b) local government and the Welsh Government jointly review and develop the funding formula so that it continues to be fit for purpose offering authorities both stability and responsiveness.

7 Plaid Cymru Debate – Agricultural Property Relief

(60 mins)

NDM8832 Heledd Fychan \(South Wales Central\)

To propose that the Senedd:

Calls on the Welsh Government to make representations to the UK Government that they reconsider and pause the family farm tax until such a time as they have conducted a thorough consultation and economic review of its impact on working farms.

The following amendment was tabled:

Amendment 1 Jane Hutt \(Vale of Glamorgan\)

Delete all and replace with:

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes that agricultural property relief is a reserved matter;
2. Recognises the concerns expressed by Welsh farmers about changes to agricultural property relief; and
3. Recognises that Welsh Ministers have and will continue to advocate to the UK Government that the views of Welsh farmers be given full and proper consideration.

8 Voting Time

9 Short Debate

(30 mins)
