7 Plaid Cymru Debate – town centre regeneration

(60 mins)

NDM9010 Heledd Fychan \(South Wales Central\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes:

a) that analysis from the Welsh Retail Consortium in 2023 showed that Wales has the second highest number of vacant shops in the UK;

b) that almost 100 high street banks have closed in Wales in the last three years; and

c) that the UK Government’s ‘Pride in Place’ programme allocates £214 million of funding to Wales with the aim of strengthening place-based regeneration.

2. Regrets that the 'Pride in Place' programme does not provide long-term funding certainty and at the scale required for town-centre regeneration.

3. Calls on the Welsh Government to publish a comprehensive strategy for town-centre regeneration, setting out a long-term vision for town centres that includes measures to:

- a) establish a preferential business rates multipliers for small and independent high street retailers, including hospitality businesses;
- b) establish long-term funding certainty for town centre regeneration; and
- c) bring forward legislation to strengthen community 'Right to Buy' powers.

The following amendments were tabled:

Amendment 1 Jane Hutt \(Vale of Glamorgan\)

Delete all after point 1 and replace with:

Supports the action being taken by the Welsh Government to assist town centres, such as:

- a) the actions set out in the retail action plan;
- b) continuing funding for rates relief schemes;
- c) including town centre first principles in key planning documents;
- d) publishing the town centres position statement;
- e) establishing the community asset commission;
- f) investment through the transforming towns programme; and
- g) launching the tidy towns fund.

Retail Action Plan

Town Centres: Position Statement

If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be de-selected.

Amendment 2 Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\)

Delete point 3 and replace with:

Calls on the Welsh Government to:

- a) scrap business rates for small businesses;
- b) improve access to free parking in town centres;
- c) amend the planning system to promote a mixed offer on high streets;
- d) establish a seaside towns fund to help address the challenges in coastal communities;

e) establish a market towns fund to help address challenges in Wales's market towns; and

f) work with the National Lottery Community Fund to promote community ownership of important assets threatened with closure.
