7 Plaid Cymru Debate – Health board governance

The item started at 16.54

Voting on the motion and amendments under this item was deferred until Voting Time.

A vote was taken on the motion without amendment:

NDM9135 Heledd Fychan \(South Wales Central\)

To propose that the Senedd:

1. Notes that:

a) this month marks three years since Betsi Cadwaladr University Health Board was returned to special measures: and

b) all other major health boards in Wales are currently in some form of targeted intervention.

2. Regrets that:

a) Betsi Cadwaladr has spent over two-thirds of its existence in special measures — longer than any other health board in NHS history; and

b) people in the north of Wales continue to face failing standards, excessive waits for treatment and long-standing organisational dysfunction under the Welsh Labour Government.

3. Calls on the Welsh Government to:

a) strengthen its political leadership to drive up standards and hold the health board to account;

b) implement the recommendations of Plaid Cymru's report The Welsh Health System: Accountability, Performance and Culture to reform NHS governance;

c) publish the findings of the recent independent investigation into gaps in Betsi Cadwaladr's waiting list data; and

d) accelerate the establishment of fully-staffed surgical hubs within Betsi Cadwaladr.

b) progress is being made by all health boards in escalation.

2. Acknowledges that the Welsh Government will publish the findings of the recent independent investigation into gaps in Betsi Cadwaladr's waiting list data, and the latest special measures progress report, in March.

3. Supports the health and social care workforce as they continue to work under pressure to meet the needs of patients.

d) urgently establish surgical hubs to help clear the waiting time backlog;

e) protect and enhance the community hospital network in north Wales, including the delivery of the north Denbighshire community hospital, and more minor injuries units; and
