Amendment 2 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point 3 and renumber accordingly:

Regrets the restrictive tender process for the supply of new cancer technologies to Velindre Cancer Centre, which will prevent investment in the most modern and innovative treatments that would have attracted expertise and clinical excellence and enabled more Welsh cancer patients to be treated in Wales.

Insert as new point 4 and renumber accordingly:

Calls upon the Welsh Government to commit to publishing the results of the Cancer Patient Experience survey.

4 Plaid Cymru Debate (60 mins)

NDM5263 Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Reiterates its support for integrated public transport.
2. Calls on the Welsh Government to continue to deliver the commitments in the National Transport Plan, and to support the implementation of regional transport plans across the nation.
3. Supports the development of integrated transport systems across Wales, including a 'Metro system' for south-east Wales.
4. Welcomes Welsh Government action on Cardiff Airport, and calls for an aviation strategy for Wales to be developed and published.
5. Calls on the Welsh Government to support the creation of a national transport authority for Wales.

The Welsh Government's National Transport Plan can be found on the following link:

<http://wales.gov.uk/topics/transport/publications/ntp/?lang=en>

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – William Graham (South Wales East)

In point 2, delete all after 'Welsh Government to' and replace with 'deliver the commitments in the National Transport Plan, support the implementation of regional transport plans across the nation, and ensure that there is effective linkage with other areas of economic development, including Enterprise Zones and City Regions'.

Amendment 2 – Lesley Griffiths (Wrexham)

Insert at end of point 2:

‘, whilst recognising the pressure on the budget available’

Amendment 3 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point 3 and renumber accordingly:

Recognises the importance of community transport schemes, particularly to the elderly and disabled and those living in rural areas, and calls on the Welsh Government to implement three year budgeting for community transport schemes to provide security of funding for community transport operators.

Amendment 4 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

In point 3 delete ‘, including a ‘Metro system’ for south-east Wales’ and replace with ‘and welcomes the commitment by the UK Government to the £1 billion electrification of the Great Western main line and the £350million electrification of the Valley Lines, which will pave the way for a ‘Metro system’ for south-east Wales’

[If amendment 4 is agreed, amendment 5 will be de-selected]

Amendment 5 – William Graham (South Wales East)

In point 3, after ‘including’ insert ‘exploring the potential for’.

Amendment 6 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

5 Welsh Liberal Democrats Debate (60 mins)

NDM5265 Aled Roberts (North Wales)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Recognises the benefits that apprenticeships offer to employers through the provision of a committed, efficient, skilled and motivated workforce and notes that the average person completing an apprenticeship increases business productivity by £214 per week.

2. Recognises the benefits that apprenticeships offer for young people to develop their skills, gain recognised qualifications, earn a higher salary and secure more stable job opportunities, as many employers rely on apprenticeships to provide the skilled workers they need for the future.

3. Regrets that between 2006/7 and 2010/11 the number of people on apprenticeship placements in Wales fell by more than 25%.

4. Calls on the Welsh Government to widen access to apprenticeships by:

a) developing a school liaison programme to increase the prominence of apprenticeships in the provision of career advice to young people;

b) establishing an Apprenticeship Ambassadors scheme to promote positive role models;

c) improving the visibility of competitions to celebrate excellence in skills;

d) trialling a UCAS-style single application process and clearing house system to improve the parity of approach between career routes; and

e) creating a single information, application and support system to streamline information provision and reduce drop-out and disengagement rates.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

Delete points 3 and 4 and replace with:

Welcomes the agreement between the Welsh Government and Plaid Cymru to invest an extra £40 million of additional funding towards apprenticeships over the next two years, creating approximately 5,650 additional apprenticeship opportunities and

2,650 opportunities for higher level apprenticeships and including expansion of Welsh language apprenticeship provision.

[If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be de-selected]

Amendment 2 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add as new sub-point at end of point 4:

seeking new ways of broadening the base of traditional apprenticeships into professional roles and other industries.

Amendment 3 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Recognises that young apprentices may need support at the end of their training to stay in employment, as well as navigating employment contracts and regulations.
