7 Welsh Conservatives Debate (60 mins)

NDM5341 William Graham (South Wales East)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Recognises there are attainment gaps within Welsh education, which are holding back different groups of children;
2. Believes those who are not achieving their full potential can often feel disenfranchised, and this can lead to problems in later life;
3. Further recognises the move between primary and secondary education is a great upheaval at an already difficult period of a child's development; and
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to ensure learning is not disrupted during this period by implementing a robust and discrete 8–14 education strategy.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

Insert at the end of point 1 ‘, particularly the gap between attainment and deprivation’

Amendment 2 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert at the end of point 1:

‘and welcomes the increase in the Pupil Deprivation Grant announced in the Draft Budget 2014–15, which will help break the link between poverty and educational underachievement.’

Amendment 3 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point 3 and renumber accordingly:

Recognises that young carers in particular are often vulnerable to educational underachievement due to the additional challenges they face, and calls on the Welsh Government to examine ways to improve identification and support for young carers to help fulfil their educational potential and support the transition into adulthood.

Amendment 4 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert at the end of point 3:

‘and calls on the Welsh Government to formalise partnerships between schools and ensure that the early years education offers a better balance of pastoral and academic teaching, to help improve the transition of pupils from primary to secondary schools.’

Amendment 5– Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

In point 4 delete ‘and discrete’

Amendment 6 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert at the end of point 4:

‘and supporting pupils to reach their full potential by reforming the school banding system to ensure that it measures school performance with regard to individual pupil performance.’
