The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Delete all and replace with:

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales

1. Recognises the additional investment made in the draft budget to the health service arising from the pressure applied by the Welsh Conservatives; and
2. Calls on the Welsh Government to redraft their Draft Budget for 2014–15 so that it:

- a) protects the health budget in real terms and fully addresses the extreme financial pressures facing local health boards in Wales;
- b) meets the needs of businesses across Wales, for the benefit of the Welsh economy;
- c) addresses the funding challenges facing FE colleges, so that they can provide a full range of skills and vocational courses for learners in Wales.

Amendment 2 – Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

Add as new points at end of motion:

Notes the important agreement achieved by the Party of Wales and the Welsh Liberal Democrats in securing:

- a) an Intermediate Care Fund to alleviate pressures on A&E departments and provide care closer to home;
- b) more than a doubling of the Pupil Deprivation Grant;
- c) three state-of-the-art Da Vinci robots that will provide less invasive surgical procedures;
- d) a health technology and telemedicine fund to put Wales at the forefront of medical technology;
- e) protection of the Supporting People Programme; and

Further notes the positive impact such investments will have on communities across the country and the improvement in community-based services that will follow.

Supported by:

Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Amendment 3 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point at end of the motion:

Welcomes the joint approach between the Welsh Liberal Democrats and Plaid Cymru, which has secured within the Draft Budget:

- a) an additional £35million to double funding for the Pupil Deprivation Grant to help break the link between poverty and educational underachievement;
- b) a £50million Intermediate Care Fund to support independent living and reduce pressure on the emergency care system;

c) an additional £9.5million investment in the Health Technology Fund to increase investment in telemedicine; and

d) a £5.5million Support People Package to help tackle homelessness.

7 Debate on the Children's Commissioner for Wales' Annual Report 2012–13 (60 mins)

NDM5357 Lesley Griffiths (Wrexham)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

Notes the Children's Commissioner for Wales' Annual report 2012–13.

The 2012–13 Annual Report of the Children's Commissioner for Wales can be accessed on the following link:

<http://www.childcomwales.org.uk/uploads/publications/400.pdf>

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point at end of the motion:

Acknowledges the concern raised by the Children's Commissioner for Wales regarding the severity of insufficient safeguarding arrangements.

Amendment 2 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point at end of the motion:

Regrets the finding within the report that often the voices of children and young people are completely ignored and calls on the Welsh Government to show stronger leadership on access to independent professional advocacy.

Amendment 3 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point at end of the motion:

Regrets the decision by the Welsh Government not to introduce a Children and Young Persons (Wales) Bill despite their commitment within the 2011 legislative statement, and calls on the Welsh Government to reverse this decision and bring forward legislation to strengthen the rights of children and young people and reform the statutory basis for the Children's Commissioner's office.

Amendment 4 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point at end of the motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to provide a response to the Children's Commissioner for Wales' Annual Report prior to the annual debate on this report.
