6 Welsh Conservatives Debate (60 mins)
NDM5484 Paul Davies (Preseli Pembrokeshire)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the Programme for Government indicators;
2. Calls on the First Minister to clarify the role the First Minister's Delivery Unit plays in delivering these indicators;
3. Regrets the Delivery Unit's apparent failure to improve the delivery of Welsh Government policy objectives for public service delivery in Wales.

The Programme for Government indicators are available at:

<http://wales.gov.uk/about/programmeforgov/data?lang=en>

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

Insert as new point 2 and renumber accordingly:

Amendment 2 – Aled Roberts (North Wales)

Insert as new point 3 and renumber accordingly:

Calls on the Welsh Government to publish targets and statistical indicators alongside all Government strategies and policies.

7 Welsh Liberal Democrats Debate (60 mins)

NDM5485 Aled Roberts (North Wales)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes that 1 in 10 children and adolescents will experience a mental health issue and recognises the importance of early intervention to support young people in reaching their full potential.
2. Regrets the failure of the Welsh Government to address key findings from the 2009 review of Children and Adolescent Mental Health Services (CAMHS) and notes the significant concerns within the 2013 follow up review of safety issues.
3. Regrets that over the past year, the number of vulnerable young people in Wales waiting more than 14 weeks to access child and adolescent psychiatric services has almost quadrupled, from 199 in January 2013 to 736 in January 2014.
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to:
 - a) address the inequitable variation in the availability and accessibility of CAMHS in Wales;
 - b) investigate the waiting times between a child or young person's first assessment with CAMHS and their subsequent service referral;
 - c) review the governance arrangements for CAMHS inpatient units and out of area placements;

- d) routinely publish readmission statistics to help inform trends in the patient discharging system;
- e) ensure that all clinical staff within CAMHS have undertaken appropriate safeguarding checks;
- f) establish a firmer procedure for health boards to report on inappropriate placements on adult mental health wards;
- g) clarify the status of the National Service Framework for Children, Young People and Maternity Services;
- h) consider the introduction of mental health education within the school curriculum to raise awareness and help address issues of stigma; and
- i) introduce a national framework to ensure continuity of treatment in the transition between CAMHS and Adult Mental Health Services, including a streamlined information sharing system between providers.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Lesley Griffiths (Wrexham)

Delete all after point 1 and replace with:

2. Recognises the steps being taken by successive Welsh Governments to improve mental health services for young people; and

3. Reaffirms the partnership approach, which sees Welsh Government, health, education, local government and the third sector working together as partners to address the continuing challenges of providing effective services in this area.

Amendment 2 – Elin Jones (Ceredigion)

Insert as new point 2 and renumber accordingly:

Notes that the Children's Commissioner has repeatedly expressed concern about support services for children and adolescents with mental health issues.

Amendment 3 – Paul Davies (Preseli Pembrokeshire)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Regrets that real term cuts to the health budget have the potential to hinder the ability of Welsh Local Health Boards to deliver improvements in CAMHS.

Amendment 4 – Paul Davies (Preseli Pembrokeshire)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Notes the commitment of the Welsh Government to ring-fence spending on mental health services and calls upon the Minister for Health and Social Services to publish information to demonstrate that it is monitoring and delivering this commitment and how it is impacting upon CAMHS services.

Voting Time

8 Short Debate (30 mins)
