5 Plaid Cymru debate

(60 mins)

NDM6121 Rhun ap Iorwerth \(Ynys Môn\)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the importance of good local government in contributing towards the local economy, health service and educational outcomes.
2. Regrets that too many public services have been "poor and patchy" and characterised by a "poverty of ambition", as described by the Williams Commission.
3. Calls on the Welsh Government to:
 - (a) increase accountability of local government through electoral reform and lowering the voting age to 16;
 - (b) examine the way in which local government finance can be reformed to ensure a fairer and more sustainable system;

- (c) introduce a nationally decided set of pay scales, terms and conditions to control senior and chief officer pay through a national framework; and
- (d) establish regional combined authorities as part of the Welsh Government's local government reform for improved regional cooperation between existing local authorities.

'Williams Commission Report'

The following amendments were tabled:

Amendment 1. Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\):

Delete point 3 and replace with:

Calls on the Welsh Government to:

- (a) examine the way in which local government is financed, to ensure that rural authorities receive fair funding equivalent to all communities across Wales; and
- (b) increase transparency in local authority senior staff budgeting to ensure that executive officer pay is sustainable and cost effective for council tax payers, and not to the detriment of the delivery of local services.

[If amendment 1 is agreed, amendment 2 will be de-selected]

Amendment 2. Jane Hutt \(Vale of Glamorgan\):

Delete point 3 and replace with:

3. Calls on the Welsh Government to:

- (a) increase accountability of local government through electoral arrangements and lowering the voting age to 16;
