Simon Thomas \(Mid and West Wales\)

Dai Lloyd \(South Wales West\)

David Melding \(South Wales Central\)

Jenny Rathbone \(Cardiff Central\)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes:

a) that 21 June is clean air day;

b) the damaging impact of air pollution on our health – Public Health Wales figures show air pollution causes 2,000 deaths a year which is 6 percent of Wales's total deaths; and

c) that NO₂ and particulate matter must both be dealt with in order to combat air pollution.

2. Calls on the Welsh Government to tackle persistent air pollution and introduce clean air zones to change behaviour and improve the health of citizens.

Supporters:

Lee Waters \(Llanelli\)

Rhun ap Iorwerth \(Ynys Môn\)

Sian Gwenllian \(Arfon\)

Vikki Howells \(Cynon Valley\)

The following amendment has been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Caroline Jones \(South Wales West\)

In point 2, delete ‘and introduce clean air zones to change behaviour and’ and replace with ‘by introducing cleaner transport alternatives and tackling industrial pollution in order to’.

8 Welsh Conservatives debate – The health and social care workforce

(60 mins)

NDM6745 Paul Davies \(Preseli Pembrokeshire\)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Recognises the vital contribution made by Wales’s health and social care workforce.
2. Believes that a valued, supported and healthy workforce will be key in driving forward the transformation NHS Wales needs to be sustainable in the future.
3. Calls on the Welsh Government to publish a comprehensive integrated strategy for Wales’s health and social care workforce to ensure our services are able to address future demand for safe and high quality services by January 2019.
4. Calls on the Welsh Government to make NHS Wales an exemplar employer through its support for well-being at work by implementing priority access to treatment for NHS workers and developing robust policies that support the health, well-being and continual professional development of the health and social care workforce.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Caroline Jones \(South Wales West\)

Insert as new point 2 and renumber accordingly:

Regrets that, due to the failure of successive Welsh Governments to undertake adequate workforce planning, the NHS in Wales has staff shortages across many specialities, particularly nursing, general practice, emergency medicine, psychiatry, radiology and endoscopy; and that these shortages are putting existing staff under tremendous strain and impacting on patient care.

Amendment 2 – Julie James \(Swansea West\)

Delete points 3 and 4 and replace with:

Welcomes the Welsh Government's commitment to:

a) publish a comprehensive integrated strategy for Wales's health and social care workforce in 2019 to ensure our services are able to address future demand for safe and high quality services;

b) make NHS Wales an exemplar employer through its support for well-being at work by developing robust policies that support the health, well-being and continual professional development of the health and social care workforce.

[If amendment 2 is agreed, amendment 3 will be de-selected]

Amendment 3 – Caroline Jones \(South Wales West\)

In point 4, delete 'implementing priority access to treatment for NHS workers and'.

Amendment 4 – Rhun ap Iorwerth \(Ynys Môn\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls for the opening of a centre for medical education in Bangor and the expansion of medical education across Wales to ensure every region has the health workforce it requires.

Amendment 5 – Rhun ap Iorwerth \(Ynys Môn\)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls for future health and social care workforce plans to include robust targets for providing a bilingual workforce and details of how existing NHS staff will be encouraged and supported to learn Welsh.
