The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – Jocelyn Davies (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Urges the Welsh Government to prioritise action to protect older people who are at risk of harm or unable to cope; and to safeguard their dignity.

Amendment 2 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Calls upon the Welsh Government to respond to the challenges defined in “Calls from the Commissioner”.

Amendment 3 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Calls upon the Welsh Government to establish a comprehensive and consistent advocacy service for older people in Wales.

Amendment 4 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add new point at end of motion:

Believes that the Welsh Government should:

a) evaluate local schemes, aimed at assisting elderly people, which:

i) encourage the adoption of healthy lifestyles and allow them to live safely within a supportive community thus avoiding unnecessary hospital admissions; and

ii) promote independent living; and

b) incorporate best practices into an all-Wales action plan on preventative health.

6. Debate on S4C (60 mins)

NDM4842 Jane Hutt (Vale of Glamorgan)

To propose that the National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the recent agreement regarding S4C’s new partnership with the BBC;

2. Agrees that the Welsh Government should discuss with the UK government the need for a full review of the operation, governance and accountability of S4C, subject to the revised arrangements at S4C being given time to work; and

3. Agrees that there should be stronger links between S4C, other public service broadcasters and the National Assembly for Wales.

Voting Time

The Assembly will sit again in Plenary at 13:30 on Wednesday, 9 November 2011
