NDM4887 Jocelyn Davies (South Wales East)

The National Assembly for Wales:

1. Notes the intention of the Welsh Government to introduce banding for both secondary and primary schools in Wales;
2. Believes that banding does not provide a whole view of a school's performance and its use should be limited to securing the necessary support for any school to improve in those areas measured by banding;
3. Calls on the Welsh Government to introduce a constructive evaluation process which leads to targeted support to remedy poor performance in schools.

The following amendments have been tabled:

Amendment 1 – William Graham (South Wales East)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Calls on the Welsh Government to monitor parent, teacher and Governor's understanding of the banding system given concerns raised by teaching staff and take further explanatory action if required.

Amendment 2 – Jane Hutt (Vale of Glamorgan)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Recognises moves by Local Authorities through consortia to reconfigure school improvement services and believes that support drawing on the expertise of leading practitioners should become a model throughout Wales.

Amendment 3 – Jane Hutt (Vale of Glamorgan)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Believes that the quality of teaching and school leadership are the key drivers of school improvement and pays tribute to the work of the teaching profession in Wales for delivering rising standards over the last decade.

Amendment 4 – Peter Black (South Wales West)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Believes that in concentrating on overall school performance this banding system fails to acknowledge the individual performances of pupils and departments within those schools.

Amendment 5 – Peter Black (South Wales West)

Add as new point at end of motion:

Is concerned that the Welsh Government has produced no specific guidance for how local authorities with a number of schools in Bands 3, 4, and 5 can make practical improvements.
