Dear Mick,

I am writing to highlight the constructive discussions that are taking place as part of the regular meetings of the Finance Ministers' Quadrilateral.

Since the outbreak, we have met on four occasions (27 March, 9 April, 30 April and 19 May) to discuss the fiscal response to the crisis. The meetings have focused on a range of issues, ranging from certainty on the funding and flexibilities available to the devolved Governments to respond to, and mitigate the impact of the crisis, to specific interventions such as the Job Retention Scheme. In the coming weeks, I would expect our discussions to focus on the fiscal implications of moving out of lockdown and into recovery, as well as the continued discussions in relation to additional budgetary flexibilities.

Yours sincerely,
