

Curriculum and Assessment (Wales) Bill – Children and Young People survey

We are asking you to provide your school year, the rough area that you live in, and your thoughts on your future learning.

The Welsh Parliament (Senedd) is the data controller of the information you provide. This means that we are responsible for any information you share with us, and will make sure it is used in line with data protection laws.

Please take care when providing sensitive information, such as information about yours or someone else's health or religious beliefs. We would ask that you do not provide this information in a way that would identify someone else.

We are using Microsoft Forms to conduct the online survey. Microsoft also provides our computer system. We have put steps in place (such as a written contract) with Microsoft to ensure that they put in place technical and organisational measures to protect your information properly, even if they hold the data in other countries.

If you have any questions about how we will use your information you can contact us at:

data.protection@senedd.wales

Data Protection Officer, Welsh Parliament, Cardiff Bay, Cardiff, CF99 1SN, 0300 200 6565

If you want to get in touch with us but don't know how, you can ask someone you know for help.

Senedd staff who are running this activity will have access to the information you provide. We won't publish your personal information but we are working with a company called Wavehill Ltd <https://www.wavehill.com/> that will be helping us to summarise all the answers we receive and put this into a report which we will publish. This means we will be sharing all answers with them. The report may be put onto our website, our social media channels and on Senedd.TV, and a version will be held indefinitely on our secure ICT network and by the National Archives (TNA).

The information shared with Wavehill will be held and used in a secure way that meets the data protection law Wavehill's privacy notice setting out how they'll deal with your information is available on their website
