Dear Simon

UK Internal Market Bill

I am writing to seek the UK Government’s understanding of the application of the Sewel Convention to the UK Internal Market Bill.

Paragraphs 87-89 and Annex A of the Explanatory Notes to the UK Internal Market Bill provide that legislative consent is required for every Part of the Bill and that it has been sought. As such, we would expect that the UK Government would not seek to pass the Bill without the consent of the Senedd.

To inform our consideration of the Bill and our wider inquiry on Wales’ changing constitution, we would be grateful if you could confirm whether you share this assessment and confirm that, if the Bill remains with the same intention as introduced, this position will not change.

We raise the latter point because of the evidence you gave to us on 9 March when you thought that, in the context of the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Bill, “in this particular instance, ‘not normal’ emerged as the theme as it became more obvious that the LCM wouldn't get through this place, and indeed through the Scottish Parliament.”
If you do not share our assessment, we would be grateful if you could tell us when and on what basis the UK Government will be able to advise whether the Bill, for the purpose of the Sewel convention, is “normal” or not.

Yours sincerely,
