pryd oedd bod cyfeiriad yn y nodyn esboniadol at adroddiad ar y wefan, a phan edrychodd y swyddogion, nid oedd adroddiad ar y wefan. Mae'r adroddiad wedi cael ei gyflwyno i chi heddiw ac wedi'i osod ar y bwrdd. Stephen, a allwch amlinellu ychydig ar sut allwn fynd â hyn ymlaen gan fod yr adroddiad bellach wedi'i dderbyn?

[7] Mr George: Siaradaf yn Saesneg, os yw hynny'n iawn.

[8] There are no technical or legislative points arising from this. The main reason that we have suggested a merits report is because the regulations, in effect, address one of the main issues that was covered in a report by the Children and Young People's Committee, which followed a fairly extensive inquiry in the previous Assembly. From the explanatory memorandum, there seemed to be some doubt as to whether the particular recommendations covered in the report had been addressed as fully by the Government as perhaps some would argue it could have. One of the problems we had in assessing that was that we did not have access to the Government's consultation summary report, which we now have. Our view is that that should now be reflected in the report and amended accordingly. However, we think that because this is reporting, essentially, on the outcome of a committee inquiry, that it would be useful to Members to have a factual report setting out the issues.

[9] Simon Thomas: A yw hynny'n glir i Aelodau? A oes gennych gwestiynau?

[10] Suzy Davies: Ym mharagraff 2 y memorandwm esboniadol mae'n dweud y canlynol:

[11] 'There are no matters of special interest to the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee.'

[12] Pwy sy'n penderfynu hynny?

Simon Thomas: Is that clear for Members? Do you have any questions?

Suzy Davies: Paragraph 2 of the explanatory memorandum states the following:

Whose decision is that?

[13] Mr George: Cyfreithwyr neu swyddogion y Llywodraeth.

Mr George: Government lawyers or officials.

[14] However, there is a special meaning to that, because what that normally means is that there are no issues that have been addressed previously by the committee or issues surrounding the types of subordinate legislation that we are dealing with so that, from previous practice, it is known those should be drawn to our attention. So, that is what it is getting at, rather than saying that you should not pay any attention to this. I do not think that it is arguing that at all.

[15] Suzy Davies: That is helpful, to explain on record what that means.

[16] Simon Thomas: Rwy'n meddwl mai'r pwyt fan hyn, os deallaf yn iawn, yw mai rhan o'n rôl gyfansoddiadol ni yw gwneud ychydig i ddiogelu rôl y pwylgorau eraill sydd wedi adrodd i'r Llywodraeth. Felly, rydym ond yn gwneud yn siŵr bod y broses o adrodd yn ôl at y pwylgorau yn reference in the explanatory memorandum to a report on the website, and when officials looked, there was no report on the website. The report has been presented to you today and has been placed on the table. Stephen, can you outline a little more on how we can take this forward as the report has now been received?

Mr George: I will speak in English, if that is okay.

Simon Thomas: I think that the point here is, if I understand it correctly, that part of our constitutional role is to do a little to safeguard the role of the other committees that have reported to Government. So, we are just making sure that the process of reporting back to the committees happens. The fact that digwydd. Mae'r ffaith bod adroddiad yn gwneud hynny yn iawn.

[17] Felly, os ydym yn newid yr adroddiad, fel yr awgrymwyd gan Stephen George, i adlewyrchu'r ffaith ein bod wedi derbyn yr adroddiad ar yr ymgynghoriad, a fyddwch chi'n hapus, Aelodau, i hynny gael ei nodi? Rwy'n gweld eich bod.

[18] Mr George: Anfonwn lythyr ar hynny.

Bil Pensiynau'r Gwasanaeth Cyhoeddus: Memorandwm Cydsyniad Deddfwriaethol Public Service Pensions Bill: Legislative Consent Memorandum

[19] Simon Thomas: Fel rydych yn gwybod, rydym yn edrych ar femoranda cydsyniad deddfwriaethol yn y pwylgor hwn hefyd.

[20] Mae tipyn mwy o wybodaeth wedi ei datgelu ers i'r adroddiad sydd ger eich bron gael ei osod. Hynny yw, mae'r adroddiad gerbron y pwylgor yn amlinellu sut mae'r memorandwm hwn yn ymdrin â rhywbeth sydd wedi ei eithrio, ac wedyn heb ei eithrio, o gylch gorchwyl y Cynulliad, ond mae rhagor o wybodaeth wedi dod i'r fei, rwy'n deall. Felly, gofynnaf i Gwyn amlinellu'r sefyllfa fel rydym yn ei deall ar hyn o bryd.

[21] Mr Griffiths: Os oeddech chi'n meddwl bod y nodyn cyfreithiol blaenorol yn gymhleth, mae'n ddrwg gennyf, oherwydd mae'r sefyllfa gyda hwn dipyn fwy cymhleth na hynny. Mae'r peth yn ymwneud yn bennaf â chyfyngu ar natur cynlluniau pensiwn y sector cyhoeddus ac yn dilyn ymgynghoriadau Llywodraeth San Steffan. Mae'r rhan fwyaf ohono yn eithaf eglur o'n safbwyt ni.

[22] Fel sydd yn cael ei esbonio, mae gan y Cynulliad gymhwysedd deddfwriaethol yn ymwneud ag Aelodau'r Cynulliad, Gweinidogion, y Cwnsler Cyffredinol ac aelodau o awdurdodau lleol yng Nghymru. Mae hynny yn gwbl glir. Fodd bynnag, mae dwy agwedd ar y pwnc hwn ac ar y Bil hwn nad ydynt wedi eu hamlinellu yn y memorandwm cydsyniad deddfwriaethol, a there is a report makes that right.

So, if we change the report, as has been suggested by Stephen George, to reflect the fact that we have received the consultation report, are Members content for that to be noted? I see that you are.

Mr George: We will send a letter to that effect.

A little more detail has been revealed since the report that is before you was laid. The report before the committee outlines how this memorandum deals with something that has been exempted, and then was not exempted, from the remit of the Assembly, but more information has emerged, so I will ask Gwyn to outline the situation as we currently understand it.

Mr Griffiths: If you thought that the previous legal note was complex, then I do apologise, because the situation with this is quite a bit more complex than that. This mainly relates to restrictions on the nature of the public sector pension schemes and follows consultations carried out by the Westminster Government. Most of it is relatively clear from our point of view.

As is explained, the Assembly has legislative competence in relation to Assembly Members, Ministers, the Counsel General and members of local authorities in Wales. That is entirely clear. However, there are two aspects to this issue and to this particular Bill that are not outlined in the legislative consent memorandum, and that is where the problem lies, I think.

[23] Y cyntaf yw'r hyn rwy'n cyfeirio ato ym mharagraff 11 o'r nodyn, sef pensiwn ar gyfer aelodau o dibriwnlys yr iaith Gymraeg. Nid yw'r tribiwnlys wedi ei sefydlu eto, ac felly nid oes pensiwn wedi ei dalu. Yr hyn y mae'r Bil hwn yn ei wneud yn adrann 16(1) yw dweud na chaiff unrhyw daliadau eu gwneud o dan y cynlluniau pensiwn a nodir yn Atodlen 5, ac mae hynny'n cynnwys y pensiwn a fyddai'n daladwy i aelodau o dibriwnlys yr iaith Gymraeg.

[24] Y cwestiwn sy'n codi felly, yn ôl yr hyn rwyf wedi ei nodi yn y papur, yw bod cymhwysedd deddfwriaethol gan y trydydd Cynulliad i wneud hyn. Sut, felly, nad yw hwn wedi ei gynnwys yn y memorandwm esboniadol? Y rheswm yw bod hwn yn un o'r materion anghyffredin lle mae'r Cynulliad wedi colli cymhwysedd deddfwriaethol yn sgîl y symudiad o Atodlen 5 i Atodlen 7 o Ddeddf Llywodraeth Cymru 2006. Yn Atodlen 7, fel rwyf wedi crybwyllyn y papur, mae gennym gymhwysedd ar gyfer y pensiynau hynny yn sgîl yr eithriad o dan ddatblygu economaidd sydd yn dweud:

[25] 'Occupational and personal pension schemes (including schemes which make provision for compensation for loss of office or employment, compensation for loss or diminution of emoluments, or benefits in respect of death or incapacity resulting from injury or disease), apart from schemes for or in respect of Assembly members, the First Minister, Welsh Ministers appointed under section 48, the Counsel General or Deputy Welsh Ministers'

[26] ac wedyn, wedi ei ychwanegu:

and then, added to that:

[27] 'and schemes for or in respect of members of local authorities.'

[28] Wedyn, aethom yn ôl i edrych yn fanylach ar Atodlen 5. Mae'r eithriad rwyf newydd ei ddyfynnu yn dod o bwnc 4, sef datblygu economaidd. O dan Atodlen 5, nid oedd gan y Cynulliad gymhwysedd deddfwriaethol mewn datblygu economaidd, felly nid oedd unrhyw eithriad. Yn sgîl hynny, roedd yn bosibl i'r Cynulliad, o dan faes yr iaith Gymraeg, nid yn unig ddarparu ar gyfer tribiwnlys ond hefyd, fel mater atodol, ddarparu ar gyfer pensiwn aelodau'r tribiwnlys hwnnw. Bellach, mae gennym eithriad penodol ar gyfer cynlluniau pensiwn ac felly ni fydd y Cynulliad bellach yn gallu darparu ar gyfer pensiwn aelodau'r tribiwnlys mewn Bil o flaen y Cynulliad. Os yw rhywun

The first is what I refer to in paragraph 11 of the note, namely a pension for members of the Welsh language tribunal. The tribunal has not yet been established, and therefore no pension has been paid. What this Bill does in section 16(1) is to state that no payments may be made under the pension schemes noted in Schedule 5, and that includes the pension that would be payable to members of the Welsh language tribunal.

The question that arises as a result of that, according to what I have noted in the paper, is that that the third Assembly had legislative competence to do this. Why, therefore, has this not been included in the explanatory memorandum? The reason is that this is one of those exceptional matters where the Assembly has lost legislative competence following the move from Schedule 5 to Schedule 7 of the Government of Wales Act 2006. In Schedule 7, as I have mentioned in the paper, we have competence for those pensions as a result of the exception under economic development, which states:

We then went back and looked in greater detail at Schedule 5. The exception that I have just quoted comes from subject 4, namely economic development. Under Schedule 5, the Assembly had no legislative competence for economic development, therefore there was no exception. As a result, it was possible for the Assembly, under the field of the Welsh language, not only to make provisions for a tribunal but also, as a supplementary issue, to make provisions for a pension for the members of that tribunal. However, we now have a specific exception for pension schemes and, therefore, the Assembly will no longer be able to make provision for a pension for the members of yn darllen hynny gydag adran 16, sy'n dweud bod y cynllun y darparwyd eisoes ar ei gyfer yn cael ei gau a bod dim taliadau i gael eu gwneud, gwelir na fydd y Cynulliad yn gallu creu system bensiwn newydd ar gyfer aelodau'r triviwnlys, felly mae'r Cynulliad wedi colli cymhwysedd deddfwriaethol ar y pwnc hwnnw. Nid oes sôn am hynny yn y memorandwm cydsyniad deddfwriaethol sydd gerbron y Cynulliad.

[29] Mae'r pwynt arall, sydd dipyn bach yn llai, yn ymwneud â gwasanaethau Tân ac achub, oherwydd os yw rhywun yn edrych yn ôl ar fater 12.16 yn Atodlen 5, mae'n darllen fel hyn:

- [30] 'Salaries, allowances, pensions and other payments for members of the following—
- [31] '(a) local government institutions for communities;'
- [32] sef cynghorau cymuned, that is, community councils,
- [33] '(b) county councils and county borough councils;'
- [34] mae hynny'n cyd-fynd â'r sefyllfa bresennol, ac wedyn: that is in accordance with the current situation, and then:
- [35] '(c) National Park authorities;
- [36] '(d) fire and rescue authorities constituted by schemes under section 2 of the Fire and Rescue Services Act 2004 or schemes to which section 4 of that Act apply.'

[37] Felly, mae gennym eithriad ar hyn o bryd ar gyfer aelodau awdurdodau lleol, ond roedd gennym gymhwysedd o dan Atodlen 5 nid yn unig ar gyfer hynny, ond ar gyfer aelodau cynghorau cymuned, parciau cenedlaethol ac awdurdodau Tân ac achub. Felly, mae'n ymddangos eto fod y Cynulliad wedi colli cymhwysedd drwy symud o Atodlen 5 i Atodlen 7. Efallai fod rheswm da dros hynny, ond nid oes cyfeiriad at hynny yn y memorandwm cydsyniad deddfwriaethol. Mater felly i'r pwylgor yw ystyried a ddylid gofyn i'r Gweinidog esbonio hyn neu a yw Aelodau yn fodlon gyda'r sefyllfa. Y Gweinidog Cyllid ac Arweinydd y Tŷ sydd wedi cyflwyno'r memorandwm hwn. Efallai nad yw ei swyddogion hi'n ymwybodol o'r materion a'r manylion hyn sydd yn ymwneud â llywodraeth leol a thribiwnlys yr iaith Gymraeg, ond, eto, mae'n wagle amlwg yn y memorandwm.

that tribunal in a Bill before the Assembly. If one reads that along with section 16, which states that the scheme that is already provided for is to be closed and that no payments are to be made, one can see that the Assembly will not be able to create a new pension system for members of the tribunal, so the Assembly has lost legislative competence on that subject. No mention is made of that in the LCM before the Assembly.

The other point, which is a more minor one, relates to the fire and rescue services, because if one looks back at Schedule 5 and matter 12.16, it reads:

Therefore, we have an exception at present for local authority members, but we had competence under Schedule 5 not only for that, but for members of community councils, national parks and fire and rescue authorities. So, it appears once again that the Assembly has lost competence in that move from Schedule 5 to Schedule 7. There may be a good reason for that, but there is no reference to it in the LCM. So, it is a matter for the committee to consider whether the Minister should be asked to explain this or whether Members are content with the situation as it currently stands. It is the Minister for Finance and Leader of the House who has tabled this memorandum. Perhaps her officials are not aware of these details relating to local government and the Welsh language tribunal, but, once again, it is an obvious oversight in the memorandum.

ddywedodd ynghynt, ond ni chredaf fod pwynt i barhau â'r drafodaeth hon. A oes unrhyw sylwadau gan Aelodau ar hyn? Gwelaf nad oes.

previously, but I do not see any point in continuing with this discussion. Do Members have any comments on this? I see that there are none.

Papurau i'w Nodi Papers to Note

[58] Simon Thomas: Yr adroddiad monitro sybsidiaredd yw'r ail adroddiad inni ei dderbyn a baratowyd gan y Gwasanaeth Ymchwil ar faterion Ewropeaidd. Mae'r adroddiad hwn yn edrych ar effaith bositl sybsidiaredd ar y Cynulliad. Nid yw'r ymhlygiadau sybsidiaredd wedi'u hamlinellu fan hyn, ond mae'r adroddiad yno er gwybodaeth. Awgrymaf ein bod yn nodi'r adroddiad, os ydych chi'n hapus â hynny? Gwelaf eich bod.

[59] Yr ail bapur i'w nodi yw hwnnw ar yr is-ddeddfwriaeth a wneir gan Weinidogion Cymru o dan Fesurau'r Cynulliad. Rydych eisoes wedi derbyn copi caled o'r adroddiad hwn. Mae'n adroddiad eithaf didorol, oherwydd rydych chi'n gallu gweld y grymoedd sydd wedi'u mabwysiadu gan Weinidogion Cymru. Gallwch weld y rhai sy'n cael eu defnyddio a hefyd y rhai nad ydynt eto wedi'u gweithredu eto. Felly, credaf mai yn y cyfarfod hwn y dylwn nodi'n ffurfiol ein bod wedi gweld yr adroddiad. A ydych chi'n hapus â hynny? A oes unrhyw gwestiynau neu bwyntiau i'w codi ar hyn? Gwelaf nad oes cwestiynau na phwyntiau. Mae'n eithaf defnyddiol gweld rhychwant y pwerau sydd gan Weinidogion.

[60] Mr George: Finally, there is a paper to note, which is the report of the previous meeting. We have been a little bit previous in this paper, because we recorded in it the discussion that we have just had about subordinate legislation. So, I think that that is what the Chair was obliquely referring to to spare my blushes. We will correct that in this meeting's report. My apologies for that.

[61] Simon Thomas: Felly, yn y cyfarfod hwn y bu ichi nodi'r adroddiad. Roeddem ni wedi derbyn yr adroddiad cyn y cyfarfod, wrth gwrs. Diolch yn fawr.

Simon Thomas: The subsidiarity monitoring report is the second report that we have received that has been prepared by the Research Service on European matters. This report looks at the possible subsidiarity effects on the Assembly. The subsidiarity implications have not been outlined here, but the report is there for your information. I suggest that we note the report, if you are content with that? I see that you are.

The second paper to note is on subordinate legislation made by Welsh Ministers under Assembly Measures. You have already received a hard copy of this report. It is quite an interesting report, because you can see all the powers that have been adopted by Welsh Ministers. You can see the ones that are used and also the ones that have not yet been used. I think that it is in this meeting that we should note formally that we have seen the report. Are you content with that? Are there any questions or points to raise on this? I see that there are none. It is quite handy to see the range of the powers of Ministers.

Simon Thomas: So, it is in this meeting that you have noted the report. We had received the report before this meeting, of course. Thank you very much.

2.53 p.m.

Dyddiad y Cyfarfod Nesaf
Date of the Next Meeting

[62] Simon Thomas: Mae'n hanner tymor yr wythnos nesaf. Bydd cyfarfod ar 5 Tachwedd, fel y saif pethau ar hyn o bryd. Mae'n bosibl y bydd y Gweinidog gyda ni, os byddwn yn teimlo bod angen trafodaeth ar y memorandwm cydsyniad deddfwriaethol. Felly, fe'ch gwelwn ar 5 Tachwedd, yn yr un ystafell ac ar yr un amser. Gyda hynny, rwy'n dod â'r cyfarfod i ben.

Simon Thomas: It is half term next week. There will be a meeting on 5 November, as things currently stand. It is possible that the Minister will be present, if we feel that we need to have a discussion in relation to the legislative consent memorandum. So, we will meet again on 5 November, in the same room and at the same time. With that, I bring the meeting to a close.

*Daeth y cyfarfod i ben am 2.53 p.m.
The meeting ended at 2.53 p.m.*
