Dear Elin,

The Health Protection (Coronavirus, International Travel and Operator Liability) (Miscellaneous Amendment) (Wales) Regulations 2021

In accordance with section 11A(4) of the Statutory Instruments Act 1946 I am notifying you that this Statutory Instrument will come into force less than 21 days after it has been laid. The Explanatory Memorandum that accompanies the Regulations is attached for your information.

This statutory instrument amends the Health Protection (Coronavirus, International Travel) (Wales) Regulations 2020, the Health Protection (Coronavirus, International Travel, Pre-Departure Testing and Operator Liability (Wales) (Amendment) Regulations 2021 and the Health Protection (Coronavirus, International Travel) (Wales) (Amendment) (No. 3) Regulations 2021.

From 15 February the Welsh Government introduced a ban on travellers arriving into Wales if they had been in a red list country in the previous 10 days. They must arrive at one of the designated ports of entry in England (or Scotland) and remain there in managed isolation for 10 days before travelling on to Wales. In addition, for arrivals from “amber list countries” exemption from isolation was made more restrictive so that isolation for 10 days is required but a person may leave isolation for a limited period for work purposes.

Since that time a number of inconsistencies have been identified between the regulatory regimes for England and for Wales and these Regulations seek to address those differences to ensure continuing alignment. In addition these Regulations amend the list of sporting events in the International Travel Regulations to cover upcoming events expected to take place over the next four months.

Not adhering to the 21 day convention allows these Regulations to come into force at the earliest opportunity and continue the four nation approach to international travel; in view of the changing evidence on risk in relation to this disease this is considered necessary and justifiable in this case.

Due to the immediacy of the Regulations they have not been subject to consultation.
