Dear Llyr,

I am writing to update you on discussions that have taken place as part of the regular meetings of the Finance Ministers' Quadrilateral.

Since my last update, we have met on four occasions (26 June, 24 July, 24 September and 21 October).

The meetings have focused on a range of issues, many of which I covered in my evidence to the Finance Committee as part of your recent scrutiny of the draft Budget 2021-22. For example, matters discussed ranged from calling for increased transparency in relation to the COVID funding guarantee and related budgetary flexibilities to the replacement of EU Funding.

Despite calls for a further Quadrilateral meeting none have been held since the October meeting.

Yours sincerely,
