Dear Sir / Madam

Consultation on the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Bill

As part of its Stage 1 consideration, the National Assembly for Wales' Communities, Equality and Local Government Committee is calling for evidence on the general principles of the Local Government (Democracy) (Wales) Bill.

What is a Bill?

Under Part 4 of the Government of Wales Act 2006 the National Assembly can pass laws in areas where it has legislative powers to do so.

When a proposal for a new law is introduced in the National Assembly, it is called a 'Bill'.

There is a four stage process for the consideration of a Bill. Stage 1 involves consideration of the general principles of the Bill by a committee (which includes the taking of written and oral evidence from interested parties and stakeholders), and the agreement of those general principles by the Assembly.

When a Bill is passed by the National Assembly and receives Royal Assent it becomes an 'Act of the Assembly'.

What does this Bill seek to achieve?

The Explanatory Memorandum that accompanies the Bill states:

"The overarching objective of the Bill is to ensure local democracy operates as efficiently as possible and to improve the democratic process in local government. It is intended to ensure local authorities are democratically representative of their communities, are organised in the most effective way and communicate well with the public. Robust local scrutiny will be a strong driver for the improvement of public services and allow the public to have greater confidence in the democratic system.”

What is the committee’s role?

The role of the committee is to consider and report on the general principles of the Bill. In doing so, the Committee has agreed to work within the following framework:

To consider:

- i) the need for a Bill to deliver:
 - reform to the organisation and functions of the Local Government Boundary Commission for Wales;
 - amendments to the Local Government (Wales) Measure 2011 in relation to the responsibilities of the Independent Remuneration Panel for Wales and the structure of local authority audit committees;
 - provisions concerning the public’s access to information concerning town and community councils;
 - amendments to Part III of the Local Government Act 2000 to facilitate the creation by local authorities of joint standards committees;
 - provision concerning the role of the Chairman or Mayor of principal councils; and
 - recasting and consolidating existing local government provisions in relation to the Boundary Commission and therefore progresses the development of a Welsh Statute Book.
- ii) the key provisions set out in the Bill and whether they are appropriate to deliver its stated objectives;
- iii) potential barriers to the implementation of the key provisions and whether the Bill takes account of them;
- iv) the views of stakeholders who will have to work with the new arrangements.

How you can help – the consultation questions

Further details of the Bill and the accompanying Explanatory Memorandum can be found on the National Assembly's website at:
