

SUPPLEMENTARY LEGISLATIVE CONSENT MEMORANDUM (MEMORANDUM NO 2)

Commercial Rent (Coronavirus) Bill

1. This Supplementary Legislative Consent Memorandum is laid under Standing Order (“SO”) 29.2. SO29 prescribes that a Legislative Consent Memorandum must be laid, and a Legislative Consent Motion may be tabled, before Senedd Cymru if a UK Parliamentary Bill makes provision in relation to Wales for any purpose within, or which modifies the legislative competence of the Senedd.
2. The Commercial Rent (Coronavirus) Bill (the “Bill”) was introduced in the House of Commons on 9 November 2021 and consideration in the House of Lords commenced on 13 January 2022 with Lords Committee stage concluding on 10 February. On 28 February, the UK Government tabled 10 amendments for consideration at Lords Report stage due to take place on 14 March. Five of these amendments make provision falling within the legislative competence of the Senedd.
3. The latest version of the Bill, as amended at Lords Committee Stage can be found here:

Commercial Rent \(Coronavirus\) Bill \(as amended in Grand Committee\)

4. A copy of the amendments to the Bill tabled by UK Government for Lords Report Stage (the “Tabled Amendments”) can be found here:

1492 \(parliament.uk\)

Policy Objectives

5. The objectives of the Bill are to make provision enabling relief from payment of certain rent debts under business tenancies adversely affected by coronavirus to be available through arbitration; and for connected purposes.

Summary of the Bill

6. The Bill is sponsored by the Department for Business, Energy, and Industrial Strategy.
7. The Legislative Consent Memorandum laid on 3 December 2021 was based on the Bill as introduced into the UK Parliament on 9 November 2021. A full summary of the Bill as introduced is contained within that Legislative Consent Memorandum, where I also stated the following:
  - a) That legislative consent of the Senedd would be required for the following provisions of the Bill: Clause 9 (to the extent that Clause 9 relates to the extension of the “moratorium period”); Clause 23; Clause

27 (to the extent that Clause relates to matters within the legislative competence of the Senedd); and Schedule 2.

- b) That whilst the Welsh Government is broadly content with the principles of the Bill, there were concerns with the way in which Clauses 9 and 27 of the Bill (as introduced) were drafted to the extent that I could not at that stage recommend the Senedd gives its consent to the Bill.

Update on the position since the publication of the first Legislative Consent Memorandum of the Bill

- 8. Following extensive discussions between the UK Government and the Welsh Government at both an official and ministerial level, the UK Government has laid the Tabled Amendments, which include amendments to Clauses 9, 23 and 27 of the Bill and the creation of two new Clauses to the Bill (namely, Clauses 23A and 27A). This Supplementary Legislative Consent Memorandum sets out my position on these amendments.

Clauses 9, 23 and 23A of the Bill

- 9. We understand that in light of the Tabled Amendments, Clauses 9, 23 and 23A of the Bill are to be drafted as shown at Annex 1 (which we set out for illustrative purposes only).
- 10. As originally drafted, the ability for the Secretary of State to make regulations to extend the reference period to arbitration made no provision for recourse to Welsh Ministers before this power was exercised. While the regulation making power covered reserved matters, it also covered matters falling within the legislative competence of the Senedd, as the exercise of the power would also have had the effect of extending the “moratorium period” for the purposes of Clause 23 and Schedule 2 of the Bill.
- 11. However, the amendments to Clauses 9, 23 and 23A of the Bill provides that where the Secretary of State decides to extend the arbitration period in the case of Welsh business tenancies (defined as business tenancy comprising premises in Wales) then whilst the Secretary of State may make regulations to extend the period specified in section 23(2)(b)(i) (in the case of a protected rent debt under a Welsh business tenancy) for the same period of time, the consent of the Welsh Ministers will be required where such extension of the period specified in section 23(2)(b)(i) has effect for the purposes of Schedule 2 of the Bill (other than the purposes of paragraph 3(6) and (7) of Schedule 2).
- 12. In the circumstances I recommend the Senedd supports the amendments at Clauses 9, 23 and 23A of the Bill.

Clauses 27 and 27A of the Bill

13. We understand that in light of the Tabled Amendments, Clauses 27 and 27A of the Bill are to be drafted as shown at Annex 2 (which we set out for illustrative purposes only).
14. As originally drafted, the Secretary of State was able to exercise powers under Clause 27 of the Bill in relation to those provisions of the Bill which fall within the legislative competence of the Senedd and without any degree of control or influence being able to be exercised by the Welsh Ministers in relation to the same.
15. However, the updated drafting of Clause 27 ensures that the Secretary of State's powers under Clause 27 would only be exercisable with the consent of the Welsh Ministers so far as it relates to the re-application, in relation to Welsh business tenancies, of (a) Schedule 2 apart from paragraph 3(6) and (7); (b) section 23 so far as relating to Schedule 2 apart from paragraph 3(6) and (7); and (c) Part 1 and Part 4 so far as relating to the provision mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b). We take the view that this covers the substantive elements of the Bill falling within the legislative competence of the Senedd.
16. The drafting at Clause 27A also provides the Welsh Ministers with the ability to exercise the power conferred by Clause 27, concurrently with the Secretary of State, so far as it relates to the reapplication, in relation to Welsh business tenancies of (a) Schedule 2 apart from paragraph 3(6) and (7); (b) section 23 so far as relating to Schedule 2 apart from paragraph 3(6) and (7); and (c) Part 1 and Part 4 so far as relating to the provision mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b).
17. The updated drafting also makes provision to ensure that the powers conferred on the Secretary of State under Clause 27 in relation to these provisions do not fall within the scope of Paragraph 11(1)(a) of Schedule 7B of the Government of Wales Act 2006.
18. In the circumstances I recommend that the Senedd supports the amendments at Clauses 27 and 27A of the Bill.

Financial implications

19. There are currently no additional financial implications for the Welsh Government or the Senedd as a result of the powers in this bill.

Conclusion

20. Whilst the Tabled Amendments do not fully reflect the amendments to the Bill which I originally sought, it is my view that the amendments to Clauses 9 and 27 of the Bill, in conjunction with the amendments at Clauses 23, 23A and 27A of the Bill, represent a significant improvement on the UK Government's original position. This has followed extensive and urgent discussions with the UK Government at both an official and ministerial level.

21. In my view it is appropriate to use the Bill as a vehicle to seek to resolve outstanding commercial rent arrears in Wales constituting a protected rent debt for the purposes of the Bill, whilst also taking forward protections for those businesses in Wales falling in scope of the Bill. I therefore recommend the Senedd supports the proposals and gives its consent.
