Dear Huw,

I am writing in response to your letter of 12 July about the UK-Switzerland Agreement on Recognition of Professional Qualifications.

Only the UK Government has the power to enter into international agreements which bind the whole of the UK, as this function is reserved under paragraph 10(1) of schedule 7A of the Government of Wales Act 2006 (GOWA). However, the Senedd has the power to pass laws relating to the observation and implementation of international obligations, as paragraph 10(3) of schedule 7A of GOWA excludes these functions from the reservation in paragraph 10(1).

This means the Welsh Government and the Senedd both have legitimate and crucial interests in the negotiation and terms of any international agreements that require implementation in devolved areas.

The Welsh Ministers remain consistently opposed to the inclusion of concurrent powers such as those in the Professional Qualifications Act 2022. The UK Government's approach in taking these powers is wholly inappropriate and disrespectful to the principle of devolution.

The Senedd did not give its consent to the Professional Qualifications Act, however the relevant executive functions now sit with Welsh Ministers. The Welsh Ministers therefore have the powers to make legislation under the Act to implement both it and the UK-
