Dear Llŷr,

I wish to make the CCEI Committee aware of the Climate Change Committee's (CCC) report, Adapting to climate change - Progress in Wales, which was published on 14 September.

As I explained in my Written Statement of 14 September, the Welsh Government requested this independent assessment from the CCC, in order to help us understand and address the increasing risks arising from climate change in Wales. The CCC's findings will help to inform the development of our new national climate resilience strategy, due to be published in autumn 2024.

The CCC's main report is also accompanied by three separate briefings focussed on the interrelationships between climate adaptation and decarbonisation, social equality, and the nature emergency.

Yours sincerely,

Julie James AS/MS
