Minister for Finance and Local Government

22 September 2023

Dear Rebecca,

Evidence papers supporting the 2024-25 Draft Budget

Many thanks for your letter of 8 September.

I am grateful for the constructive manner in which you have engaged with the Finance Committee on ways that ministerial written evidence on the Welsh Government's Draft Budget proposals can be improved, with the aim of addressing the issues identified in my letter of 23 June.

I welcome your intention to confirm when Ministers will provide their evidence papers to Senedd Committees ahead of the 2024-25 budget round. I am also grateful that Senedd Committees will be offered a technical briefing on the Draft Budget.

In terms of your request for a clear indication from the Finance Committee on what would be considered essential for inclusion in ministerial evidence papers, it would not be appropriate for me to provide a single list of proposals without consulting Committee Chairs first.

Whilst I see benefits in developing a high level template for evidence papers, and although I am supportive of co-operation between committees to avoid duplication and overlap in its areas of focus during budget scrutiny, a consistent approach may be difficult to achieve in practice given that Committees will naturally have different priorities and areas of focus.

I would also want to guard against the development of a template that may foster a prescriptive approach to the provision of written evidence, which may end up diluting the information made available to individual Committees as they seek to hold ministerial spending decisions to account.

The difficulties faced by Ministers in providing specific details for Committees relating to each MEG during the 2024-25 budget is a case in point. Although I recognise the challenges posed by this year's budget timetable, this should not restrict Committees from requesting detailed information relating to individual portfolios as this is crucial to informing public evidence sessions with Ministers, particularly when time to consult with stakeholders is limited.

I am therefore willing to explore ways in which a template could be developed, although I also acknowledge that developing consensus on this issue may take time and that it is unlikely that any changes will be agreed for the forthcoming budget round.

I am copying this response to all Senedd Committees with an interest in budget scrutiny to facilitate further discussions, and will raise this matter at the next meeting of the Chair's Forum on 23 October.

Yours sincerely
