SCME372 Ymateb gan: | Response from: Jeffrey Jones

I believe that we should not go ahead with extra 33 new seats because with all the cut backs for councils and the NHS having 64 million cut backs in every trust , it is we the people of wales have to fund these new members and we will not get back to some normality for a few years.

With the new proposals for elections we should be voting on who we want to represent us and not the party deciding who stands in the new proposed constituency
