To whom it may concern.

I must strongly object to the latest reforms and increase in members.

Such matters should be put to the vote of the Welsh people, not given over to an arbitrary decision of the ruling party and its supporters.

Such an immense amount of funding should not be squandered on administration in Cardiff, when there are public services in desperate need of funding!

It is obvious why this matter is to be forced on us with consultation, the First Minister knows very well it would never be passed.

It is contemptible how the public is treated by this administration.

Yours Sincerely

Mr. G. Sansom
