Dear Peredur,

The Prohibition of Greyhound Racing (Wales) Bill: Revised Explanatory Memorandum

Following the completion of the Stage 2 proceedings in respect of the Prohibition of Greyhound Racing (Wales) Bill, and in line with Standing Order 26.28, a revised Explanatory Memorandum has been laid. This takes into account the amendment made to the Bill at Stage 2, to reflect amended provisions. Updates have been made to Chapter 5 to reflect the position on powers for making subordinate legislation, and to Annex 1 to ensure the Explanatory Notes reflect the Bill as amended.

On 18 November, I wrote with further information about the financial implications of the Bill. Since the Bill's introduction, we have received additional information to support our assessments of the impacts. This information has been reflected in the Regulatory Impact Assessment within the Explanatory Memorandum.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Finance Committee for its scrutiny of the Bill.

Yours sincerely,

Huw Irranca-Davies AS/MS
