- 30
- (6) Before making regulations under subsection (1)(b), the Welsh Ministers must consult any persons they consider appropriate and allow those persons a period of at least 12 weeks to respond.

- (f) in relation to visitor accommodation, a reference to a “visitor” is a reference to an individual who is entitled to reside in or at the visitor accommodation for one or more nights, under or in consequence of a contract described in section 3(3) of that Act.

Fitness of visitor accommodation premises

6 Meaning of fitness for visitor accommodation

- (1) For the purposes of this Act, premises at which regulated visitor accommodation is provided (or offered) are fit for visitor accommodation unless –
- (a) the general fitness standard described in section 7 is not met and the risk of harm or loss of amenity caused by it not being met is such that the premises are not reasonably suitable for a visitor to reside in or at, or
 - (b) in so far as they apply in respect of the premises, any of the specific fitness standards referred to in section 8 are not met.
- (2) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations –
- (a) amend the general fitness standard described in section 7, and
 - (b) amend, add to or omit any of the specific fitness standards listed in section 8.
- (3) Before making regulations under subsection (2), the Welsh Ministers must consult any persons they consider appropriate.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, sections 7 to 13 and Chapter 3, a reference to “the premises” –
- (a) is, in relation to regulated visitor accommodation provided in part of the premises, a reference to such part of the premises in which that accommodation is provided;

- (b) in the case of accommodation of a description given in section 5(1)(a) (regulated self-catering accommodation), includes any outdoor area, garage or other building provided for the exclusive use of a visitor during the period in which the visitor is entitled to reside in or at the accommodation.

 - 10 (ii) the design, layout and construction of the premises is appropriate,

- (d) section 12 (carbon monoxide risk), and

(2) For the purposes of subsection (1) –

(b) the VAP must keep the assessment under review, and update it as appropriate, and the VAP must update the assessment where –

(i) there has been a significant change in any of the matters to which it relates, or

(ii) the VAP is aware, or ought to be aware, that there is any other reason to update the assessment.

10 Fitness for visitor accommodation: electrical maintenance

(1) The electrical maintenance standard is that, in the case of regulated visitor accommodation in a building or in a mobile home, vessel or other vehicle, the VAP holds a valid report (an “electrical condition report”) setting out the results of an inspection and testing of each electrical service installation at the premises carried out by a qualified person and either –

(a) the report records that no investigatory or remedial work is required to ensure that the electrical safety standards are met, or

(b) where the report identifies that investigatory or remedial work is required to ensure that the electrical safety standards are met, there is a written record that the work has been carried out.

(2) An electrical condition report is valid –

(a) until the end of the period of 5 years beginning with the day on which the electrical safety inspection that it relates to was carried out, or

(b) until the day the electrical condition report states that the next electrical safety inspection should be carried out (if sooner).

(3) In this section –

(a) “electrical safety standards” means the standards for electrical service installations set out in the edition of the Wiring Regulations, published by the Institution of Engineering and Technology and the British Standards Institution, applicable at the time of the inspection;

(b) an “electrical service installation” means an installation for the supply of electricity; and the reference to an electrical service installation “at the premises” includes, where the premises forms part only of a building, an electrical service installation that directly or indirectly serves the premises, and that is installed in any part of the building of which the VAP is an occupier;

- (c) “qualified person” means a person who is competent to undertake the inspection and testing of an electrical service installation, and any further investigative or remedial work, in accordance with the electrical safety standards;
- (d) “written record of work” means, in relation to investigatory or remedial work, a written record prepared by a person who –
 - (i) is a qualified person, and
 - (ii) carried out the work.

- (1) The gas maintenance standard is that, in the case of regulated visitor accommodation in a building or in a mobile home, vessel or other vehicle, there is a gas maintenance record in relation to the following –
 - (a) any gas appliance or any installation pipework installed on the premises,
 - (b) where the accommodation is in a building, and except where the gas appliance or installation pipework in question is exclusively used in a part of premises occupied for non-residential purposes, any gas appliance or installation pipework that, directly or indirectly, serves the premises and that is installed in any part of the building of which the VAP is an occupier, and
 - (c) any flue that serves a gas appliance or installation pipework referred to in paragraph (a) or (b).
- (2) In subsection (1) –
 - (a) “flue” and “installation pipework” each have the same meaning as in regulation 2(1) of the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 (S.I. 1998/2451);
 - (b) “gas appliance” has the same meaning as in regulation 2(1) of the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998, including that part of the definition that applies for the purposes of regulation 3, 35 and 36 of those Regulations;
 - (c) a “gas maintenance record” means the maintenance record under regulation 36(3)(c) of the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 that –
 - (i) if the regulation applies to the VAP, the VAP must keep in accordance with that regulation, or
 - (ii) if the regulation does not apply to the VAP, the VAP would need to keep if that regulation applied to the VAP.

12 Fitness for visitor accommodation: carbon monoxide risk

- (1) The carbon monoxide risk standard is that, in the case of regulated visitor accommodation in a building or in a mobile home, vessel or other vehicle, there is a functioning carbon monoxide alarm in any room of the premises that contains –
 - (a) a gas appliance,
 - (b) an oil-fired combustion appliance, or

(c) a solid fuel burning combustion appliance.

(2) In subsection (1) –

(a) “gas appliance” has the same meaning as in regulation 2(1) of the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998, including that part of the definition that applies for the purposes of regulation 3, 35 and 36 of those Regulations;

(b) “room” includes –

(i) a hall, landing or corridor or other similar area;

(ii) (in relation to a mobile home, vessel or other vehicle) a cabin or other similar area.

13 Fitness for visitor accommodation: insurance

(1) The insurance standard is that a public liability insurance policy is in place in relation to liabilities to third parties arising from or in connection with the provision of regulated visitor accommodation at the premises.

(2) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations make provision about –

(a) the matters or circumstances in relation to which the public liability insurance must provide cover, and

(b) includes a licence granted by the Welsh Ministers under section 27 (provisional licences) except so far as –

(i) express provision is made to the contrary, or

(ii) the context requires otherwise.

(2) Nothing in this Chapter prevents two or more visitor accommodation licences having effect concurrently in respect of the whole or a part of the same premises.

(3) Schedule 2 makes amendments to the Visitor Accommodation (Register and Levy) Etc. (Wales) Act 2025 (asc 5) in connection with this Chapter.

15 Licence conditions: general

(1) A visitor accommodation licence must be granted subject to –

(a) the licence conditions set out in subsection (3);

(b) such further licence conditions as may be prescribed by the Welsh Ministers in accordance with section 17 (so far as applicable).

(2) But see also section 27 in relation to the licence conditions subject to which provisional visitor accommodation licences must be granted.

(3) The conditions are –

(a) that –

(i) the visitor accommodation provider (“VAP”) to which the licence is granted is registered in respect of the premises to which the licence relates, and

(d) that the VAP takes all reasonable steps, in relation to the provision of visitor accommodation at the premises –

(i) to prevent conduct that is capable of causing nuisance or annoyance to a person with a right (of whatever description) to reside in the locality of the premises, and

(ii) to prevent such conduct, where it occurs, causing the nuisance or annoyance;

(e) that the VAP takes all reasonable steps to ensure that prior to any period in which a visitor is entitled to reside in or at the accommodation, the visitor is provided with –

(i) a copy of the licence certificate, and

(ii) the statement of information (see section 22);

(f) that the VAP ensures that there is a copy of the licence certificate accessible at the premises in paper or electronic form at any time when a visitor is entitled to reside in or at the accommodation.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3) –

(a) references to “the premises” have the same meaning as in section 6(4);

(b) the condition in subsection (3)(d) applies only in relation to the provision of regulated visitor accommodation of the description referred to in section 5(1)(a);

(c) the reference in subsection (3)(d) to preventing conduct capable of causing nuisance or annoyance is limited to preventing conduct –

(i) foreseeable to the VAP or that ought to be foreseeable to the VAP, and

(ii) that is practicable to prevent.

- (5) For the purposes of this Chapter, article 43 of the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/1541) (suspension of terms and conditions of licence) does not apply in relation to any condition or approval requirement (see section 19) imposed in relation to a visitor accommodation licence.

5 16 Licence conditions: visitor accommodation provider training

- (1) For the purposes of this Chapter, a contract is a “visitor accommodation contract” if the contract entitles an individual (“a visitor”), to reside in or at regulated visitor accommodation for no more than 31 nights (whether or not those nights are consecutive).
- (2) In subsection (1), “visitor accommodation contract” does not include –
- (a) a contract of service,
 - (b) a contract of apprenticeship, or
 - (c) a contract for services under which a person entitled to reside in or at the regulated visitor accommodation provides a service to the VAP.

39 Contractual obligation to ensure premises fit for visitor accommodation

- (1) Subsection (2) is incorporated as a term of a visitor accommodation contract.
- (2) The VAP must ensure that the premises at which the regulated visitor accommodation is provided are fit for visitor accommodation when, in accordance with the contract, the visitor is entitled to reside in or at the accommodation.
- (3) Subsection (2) –
- (a) may be incorporated as a term of a visitor accommodation contract with modifications, or
 - (b) need not be incorporated as a term of a visitor accommodation contract,
- if the effect of the modifications, or of not incorporating subsection (2), is more favourable to the visitor.

- (4) The term of the contract that incorporates subsection (2) may be relied on by a visitor entitled to reside at the premises in accordance with the contract, regardless of whether the visitor is a party to that contract.
- (5) The incorporation of subsection (2) as a term of a visitor accommodation contract has no effect on the operation of any other enactment or rule of law that is more favourable to the visitor.
- (6) A term of a visitor accommodation contract that is incompatible with any of the following has no effect –

- (3) “Lack of care” means a failure to take proper care –
- (a) of the premises, and
 - (b) if the premises form part only of a building, of the common parts that the visitor is entitled to use under the visitor accommodation contract.

- (3) But subsection (2) does not apply if a visitor’s entitlement to reside in or at the regulated visitor accommodation begins at a time when the VAP is aware, or could reasonably be expected to be aware, that the premises are not fit for visitor accommodation.
- (4) For the purposes of determining what is a “reasonable time”, regard must be had to –
