- (a) expressed to be granted for holiday use only, or
 - (b) otherwise expressed but so that, or subject to conditions such that, there are times of the year when no mobile home may be stationed on the site for human habitation.
- (4) For the purpose of determining whether or not a site is a holiday site, any provision of the relevant planning permission or of the site licence which permits the stationing of a mobile home on the land for human habitation all year round is to be ignored if the mobile home is authorised to be occupied by –
- (a) the person who is the owner of the site, or
 - (b) a person employed by that person but who does not occupy the mobile home under an agreement to which Part 4 applies.
- (5) In subsection (2) “local authority Gypsy and Traveller site” means land occupied by a local authority for the stationing of mobile homes providing accommodation for Gypsies and Travellers.

3 Owners of sites

In this Act “owner”, in relation to any land, means the person who, by virtue of an estate or interest in the land –

7 Issue of site licence

- (1) A local authority may issue a site licence in respect of land if the applicant is, when the site licence is issued, entitled to the benefit of planning permission for the use of the land as a mobile home site otherwise than by a development order.

- 5 (2) If, on the date when the applicant gives the information required by virtue of section 6, the applicant is entitled to the benefit of such planning permission, the local authority may issue a site licence in respect of the land within 2 months of that date or, if the applicant and the local authority agree in writing that the local authority is to be allowed a longer period within which to grant a site licence, within the period agreed.
- 10 (3) If the applicant becomes entitled to the benefit of planning permission at some time after giving the information required by virtue of section 6(2) and (3), the local authority may issue a site licence in respect of the land within 6 weeks of the date on which the applicant becomes entitled to the benefit of such a permission or, if the applicant and the local authority agree in writing that the local authority is to be allowed a longer period within which to grant a site licence, within the period agreed.
- (4) Where a local authority decides not to issue a site licence under subsection (2) or (3) –
- 15 (a) the local authority must notify the applicant of the reasons for the decision and of the applicant's right of appeal under paragraph (b),
- (b) the applicant may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the decision is made, appeal to a residential property tribunal against the decision, and
- (c) no compensation may be claimed for loss suffered in consequence of the decision pending the outcome of the appeal.
- 20 (5) A local authority must not at any time issue a site licence to a person whom the local authority knows has held a site licence which has been revoked under section 18 or 28 less than 3 years before that time.
- (6) Where a local authority fails to determine an application for a site licence within the period within which it is required to do so, no offence under section 5 is committed in respect of the land by the person by whom the application for the site licence was made at any time after the end of that period until the application is determined.

8 Duration of site licence

- 30 (1) A site licence comes into operation at the time specified in or determined under the licence and, unless terminated by its revocation, continues in force for the period specified in or determined under the site licence.
- (2) That period must end not later than 5 years after the day on which the site licence comes into operation.

Conditions of site licences

9 Power to attach conditions to site licence

- 35 (1) A site licence issued by a local authority in respect of any land may be issued subject to such conditions as the local authority may consider it necessary or desirable to impose on the owner of the land in the interests of –
- (a) persons dwelling on the land in mobile homes,
- (b) any other class of persons, or
- 40

- (c) the public at large.
- (2) The conditions subject to which a site licence may be issued include (but are not limited to) conditions –
- 5 (a) for restricting the occasions on which mobile homes are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation, or the total number of mobile homes which are stationed on the land for those purposes at any one time,
- (b) for controlling (whether by reference to their size, the state of their repair or, subject to subsection (3), any other feature) the types of mobile home which are stationed on the land,
- 10 (c) for regulating the positions in which mobile homes are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation and for prohibiting, restricting, or otherwise regulating the placing or erection on the land, at any time when mobile homes are stationed on the land for those purposes, of structures and vehicles of any description and of tents,
- 15 (d) for securing the taking of any steps for preserving or enhancing the amenity of the land, including the planting and replanting of the land with trees and bushes,
- (e) for securing that, at all times when mobile homes are stationed on the land, proper measures are taken for preventing and detecting the outbreak of fire and adequate means of fighting fire are provided and maintained,
- 20 (f) for securing that adequate sanitary facilities, and such other facilities, services or equipment as may be specified, are provided for the use of persons dwelling on the land in mobile homes and that, at all times when mobile homes are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation, any facilities and equipment provided for their use are properly maintained, and
- 25 (g) for requiring that where there is a change in the person by whom the site is managed, a declaration is made by the holder of the site licence to the local authority that the new manager is a fit and proper person to manage the site.
- (3) No condition may be imposed controlling the types of mobile homes which are stationed on the land by reference to the materials used in their construction.
- 30 (4) Where the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies to land, no condition may be imposed in a site licence relating to the land in so far as it relates to any matter in relation to which requirements or prohibitions are or could be imposed by or under that Order.
- (5) A site licence issued in respect of any land must, unless it is issued subject to a condition restricting to 3 or fewer the total number of mobile homes which may be stationed on the land at any one time, contain a condition that, at all times when mobile homes are stationed on the land for the purposes of human habitation, a copy of the site licence as for the time being in force, together with copies of the most recent utility bills relating to the site, must be displayed on the land in a prominent place.
- 35 (6) In subsection (5) “utility bills” means bills for the provision of gas, electricity, water, sewerage or other similar services.
- 40

(7) A condition of a site licence may, if it requires the carrying out of any works on the land in respect of which the site licence is issued, prohibit or restrict the bringing of mobile homes on to the land for the purposes of human habitation until such time as the local authority has certified in writing that the works have been completed to their satisfaction.

(8) Where the land to which the site licence relates is at the time in use as a mobile home site, a condition requiring the carrying out of any works on the land may, whether or not it contains any prohibition or restriction mentioned in subsection (7), require the works to be completed to the satisfaction of the local authority within a stated period.

(9) A condition of a site licence is valid even if it can be complied with only by the carrying out of works which the holder of the site licence is not entitled to carry out as of right.

10 Model standards

(1) The Welsh Ministers may specify for the purposes of section 9 model standards with respect to the layout of, and the provision of facilities, services and equipment for, regulated sites or particular types of regulated sites.

(2) In deciding what (if any) conditions to impose in a site licence, a local authority must have regard to any model standards which have been specified.

(3) No model standards may be specified in relation to land to which the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies in so far as the standards relate to any matter in relation to which requirements or prohibitions are or could be imposed by or under that Order.

(4) The duty of a local authority to have regard to standards specified under this section is to be construed, as regards standards relating to fire precautions, as a duty to have regard to them subject to any advice given by the fire and rescue authority under section 11.

(5) In this section and section 11 “fire precautions” means precautions to be taken for any of the purposes specified in section 9(2)(e).

11 Fire precautions

(1) The local authority must, in considering what conditions to impose in a site licence relating to any land, consult the fire and rescue authority as to the extent to which any model standards relating to fire precautions which have been specified under section 10 are appropriate to the land.

(2) If—

(a) no such standards have been specified, or

(b) any standard that has been specified appears to the fire and rescue authority to be inappropriate to the land, the local authority must consult the fire and rescue authority as to what conditions relating to fire precautions ought to be imposed instead.

(3) This section does not apply where the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies to the land.

12 Appeal against conditions of site licence

- 5 (1) Where a local authority decides to issue a site licence subject to conditions (other than the condition about displaying the site licence referred to in section 9(5)), the local authority must notify the applicant of the reasons for doing so and of the applicant's right of appeal under subsection (2).
- (2) The applicant may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day on which the decision is made, appeal to a residential property tribunal against the decision.
- 10 (3) The tribunal may vary or cancel the condition if satisfied (having regard, among other things, to any standards which may have been specified by the Welsh Ministers under section 10) that the condition is unduly burdensome.
- (4) In a case where a residential property tribunal varies or cancels a condition under subsection (3), it may also attach a new condition to the site licence.
- 15 (5) In so far as the effect of a condition subject to which a site licence is issued in respect of any land is to require the carrying out on the land of any works, the condition does not have effect—
- (a) during the period within which the person to whom the site licence is issued is entitled to appeal against the condition, or
 - (b) while an appeal against the condition is pending.

13 Power of local authority to vary conditions of site licence

- 20 (1) The conditions of a site licence may be varied at any time (whether by the variation or cancellation of existing conditions, by the addition of new conditions, or by a combination of any such methods) by the local authority if—
- 25 (a) the holder of the site licence makes an application to the local authority for it to do so, or
 - (b) the local authority discovers new information or considers that there has been a change of circumstances.
- (2) Before varying the conditions of a site licence under subsection (1)(b), the local authority must give to the holder of the site licence an opportunity to make representations.
- 30 (3) Where the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies to the land to which the site licence relates, no new condition may be added to a site licence under subsection (1) in so far as it relates to any matter in relation to which requirements or prohibitions are or could be imposed by or under that Order.
- (4) A local authority may require an application for a variation of the conditions of the site licence to be accompanied by a fee fixed by the local authority (on which see section 37).
- 35 (5) The variation by a local authority of the conditions of site licence is not to have effect until written notification of it has been received by the holder of the site licence.
- (6) In exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1), a local authority must have regard (among other things) to any standards which may have been specified by the Welsh Ministers under section 10.

- (7) The local authority must consult the fire and rescue authority before exercising the powers conferred by subsection (1) in relation to a condition of a site licence imposed for the purposes set out in section 9(2)(e).
- (8) Subsection (7) does not apply where the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies to the land.

14 Appeal against variation of conditions of site licence

- (1) Where the holder of a site licence is aggrieved by any variation of the conditions of the site licence under section 13(1)(b) or by the refusal of the local authority of an application for the variation of those conditions, the holder may, within the period of 28 days beginning with the day following that on which notification of the alteration or refusal is received by the holder, appeal to a residential property tribunal.
- (2) The tribunal, may, if it allows the appeal, give to the local authority such directions as may be necessary to give effect to the tribunal's decision.
- (3) In so far as a variation of a site licence imposes a requirement on the holder of the site licence to carry out on the land to which the site licence relates any works which the holder of the site licence would not otherwise be required to carry out, the variation is not to have effect during the period within which the holder is entitled to appeal against the variation or while an appeal against the variation is pending.
- (4) In exercising the powers conferred by subsection (2) a residential property tribunal must have regard amongst other things to any standards which may have been specified by the Welsh Ministers under section 10.

Breach of condition

15 Breach of condition

- (1) If it appears to a local authority which has issued a site licence that the owner of the land is failing or has failed to comply with a condition of the site licence, the local authority may give the owner –
- (a) a fixed penalty notice, or
 - (b) a compliance notice.
- (2) The Welsh Ministers may issue guidance to local authorities as to the considerations they should take into account in deciding whether to deal with a failure to comply with a condition of a site licence by giving a fixed penalty notice or a compliance notice.
- (3) A local authority must have regard to any such guidance in making such a decision.

16 Fixed penalty notice

- (1) A fixed penalty notice is a notice which –
- (a) sets out the condition in question and details of the failure to comply with it,
 - (b) requires the owner of the land to pay a specified amount to the local authority at an address specified in the notice, and

(c) specifies the period within which the specified amount must be paid.

(2) The amount specified in a fixed penalty notice given at any time must not exceed the amount specified at that time as level 1 on the standard scale for summary offences.

(3) Without prejudice to payment by any other method, payment of an amount specified in a fixed penalty notice may be made by pre-paying and posting a letter containing the amount (in cash or otherwise) to the local authority at the address specified in the notice; and in that case payment is to be regarded as having been made at the time at which that letter would be delivered in the ordinary course of post.

17 Compliance notices

(1) A compliance notice is a notice which—

(a) sets out the condition in question and details of the failure to comply with it,

(b) requires the owner of the land to take such steps as the local authority considers appropriate and as are specified in the notice in order to ensure that the condition is complied with,

(c) specifies the period within which those steps must be taken, and

(d) explains the right of appeal conferred by subsection (2).

(2) An owner of land who has been served with a compliance notice may appeal to a residential property tribunal against that notice.

(3) A local authority may—

(a) revoke a compliance notice, or

(b) vary a compliance notice by extending the period specified in the notice under subsection (1)(c).

(4) The power to revoke or vary a compliance notice is exercisable by the local authority—

(a) on an application made by the owner of land on whom the notice was served, or

(b) on the authority's own initiative.

(5) Where a local authority revokes or varies a compliance notice, it must notify the owner of the land to which the notice relates of the decision as soon as is reasonably practicable.

(6) Where a compliance notice is revoked, the revocation comes into force at the time when it is made.

(7) Where a compliance notice is varied—

(a) if the notice has not become operative when the variation is made, the variation comes into force at such time (if any) as the notice becomes operative in accordance with section 24, and

(b) if the notice has become operative when the variation is made, the variation comes into force at the time when it is made.

18 Compliance notice: offence and multiple convictions

- (1) An owner of land who has been served with a compliance notice which has become operative commits an offence if the owner fails to take the steps specified in the notice under section 17(1)(b) within the period specified in the notice under section 17(1)(c).
- 5 (2) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine.
- (3) In proceedings against an owner of land for an offence under subsection (1), it is a defence that the owner had a reasonable excuse for failing to take the steps referred to in subsection (1) within the period referred to in that subsection.
- 10 (4) Subsection (5) applies where –
- (a) an owner of land is convicted of an offence under subsection (1), and
 - (b) the owner has been convicted on two or more previous occasions of an offence under subsection (1) in relation to the site licence to which the conviction mentioned in paragraph (a) relates.
- 15 (5) On an application by the local authority which served the compliance notice, the court before which the owner of the land was convicted may make an order revoking the site licence on the date specified in the order.
- (6) An order under subsection (5) must not specify a date which is before the end of the period within which notice of appeal (whether by case stated or otherwise) may be given
- 20 against the conviction mentioned in subsection (4)(a).
- (7) Where an appeal against the conviction mentioned in subsection (4)(a) is made by the owner of the land before the date specified in an order under subsection (5), the order does not take effect until –
- (a) the appeal is finally determined, or
 - 25 (b) the appeal is withdrawn.
- (8) On an application by the owner of the land or by the local authority who issued the site licence, the court which made the order under subsection (5) may make an order specifying a date on which the revocation of the site licence takes effect which is later than the date specified in the order under subsection (5).
- 30 (9) But the court must not make an order under subsection (8) unless it is satisfied that adequate notice of the application has been given to the owner (if the applicant is the local authority) or to the local authority (if the applicant is the owner).

19 Compliance notice: power to demand expenses

- 35 (1) When serving a compliance notice on an owner of land, a local authority may impose a charge on the owner as a means of recovering expenses incurred by the local authority –
- (a) in deciding whether to serve the notice, and
 - (b) in preparing and serving the notice or a demand under subsection (3).
- (2) The expenses referred to in subsection (1) include (but are not limited to) the costs of obtaining expert advice (including legal advice).

- (3) The power under subsection (1) is exercisable by serving the compliance notice together with a demand which sets out –

 - (c) where the local authority propose to charge interest under section 25, the rate at which the relevant expenses carry interest.
- (4) Where a tribunal allows an appeal under section 17 against the compliance notice with which a demand was served, the tribunal may make such order as it considers appropriate –
- (a) confirming, reducing or quashing any charge under this section made in respect of the notice, and
 - (b) varying the demand as appropriate in consequence.

20 Power to take action following conviction of owner

- (1) Where an owner of land is convicted of an offence under section 18(1), the local authority which issued the compliance notice may –
- (a) take any steps required by the compliance notice to be taken by the owner but which have not been taken, and
 - (b) take such further action as the authority considers appropriate for ensuring that the condition specified in the compliance notice is complied with.
- (2) Where a local authority proposes to take action under subsection (1), it must serve on the owner of the land a notice which –
- (a) identifies the land and the compliance notice to which it relates,
 - (b) states that the local authority intends to enter the land,
 - (c) describes the action the local authority intends to take on the land,
 - (d) if the person whom the local authority proposes to authorise to take the action on their behalf is not an officer of the local authority, states the name of that person, and

- (3) The notice must be served sufficiently in advance of when the local authority intends to enter the land as to give the owner of the land reasonable notice of the intended entry.
- (4) In a case where the local authority authorises a person other than an officer of the local authority to take the action on their behalf, the reference in section 32(1) to an authorised officer of the local authority is to be read as including that person.
- (5) The requirement in section 32(2) to give 24 hours’ notice of the intended entry, in its application to a case within this section, applies only in relation to the day on which the local authority intend to start taking the action on the land.

21 Power to take emergency action

- (1) A local authority which has issued a site licence may take action in relation to any of the land comprising the site if it appears to the local authority that—
- 5 (a) the owner of the land is failing or has failed to comply with a condition of the site licence, and
- (b) as a result of that failure there is an imminent risk of serious harm to the health or safety of any person who is or may be on the land.
- (2) The action a local authority may take under this section (referred to in this section as “emergency action”) is such action as appears to the local authority to be necessary to remove the imminent risk of serious harm mentioned in subsection (1)(b).
- 10 (3) Where a local authority proposes to take emergency action, the local authority must serve on the owner of the land a notice which—
- (a) identifies the land to which it relates,
- (b) states that the local authority intends to enter the land,
- 15 (c) describes the emergency action the local authority intends to take on the land,
- (d) if the person whom the local authority proposes to authorise to take the action on their behalf is not an officer of the local authority, states the name of that person, and
- (e) specifies the powers under this section and section 32 as the powers under which the local authority intends to enter the land.
- 20 (4) A notice under subsection (3) may state that, if entry to the land were to be refused, the local authority would propose to apply for a warrant under section 32(3).
- (5) A notice under subsection (3) must be served sufficiently in advance of when the local authority intends to enter the land as to give the owner of the land reasonable notice of the intended entry.
- 25 (6) In a case where the local authority authorises a person other than an officer of the local authority to take the emergency action on its behalf, the reference in section 32(1) to an authorised officer of the local authority includes that person.
- (7) Section 32, in its application to a case within this section, has effect as if—
- 30 (a) the words “at all reasonable hours” in subsection (1), and
- (b) subsection (2),
- were omitted.
- (8) Within the period of 7 days beginning with the date when the local authority starts taking the emergency action, the local authority must serve on the owner of the land a notice which—
- 35 (a) describes the imminent risk of serious harm to the health or safety of persons who are or may be on the land,
- (b) describes the emergency action which has been, and any emergency action which is to be, taken by the local authority on the land,

- (c) sets out when the local authority started taking the emergency action and when the local authority expects it to be completed,
- (d) if the person whom the local authority has authorised to take the action on its behalf is not an officer of the local authority, states the name of that person, and protected site subsists until the agreement is determined under paragraph 3, 4, 5 or 6.

- 2 (1) If the owner's estate or interest is insufficient to enable the owner to grant the right for an 10 indefinite period, the period for which the right subsists does not extend beyond the date when the owner's estate or interest determines.
- (2) If planning permission for the use of the protected site as a site for mobile homes has been granted in terms such that it will expire at the end of a specified period, the period 15 for which the right subsists does not extend beyond the date when the planning permission expires.
- (3) If before the end of a period determined by this paragraph there is a change in circumstances which allows a longer period, account is to be taken of that change.

Termination

20 owner not less than 4 weeks before the date on which it is to take effect.
- 4 The owner is entitled to terminate the agreement immediately if, on the application of the owner, the appropriate judicial body –

25 service of a notice to remedy the breach, has not complied with the notice within a reasonable time, and
- (b) considers it reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.
- 5 The owner is entitled to terminate the agreement immediately if, on the application of the site, and

(b) then, on the application of the owner, the appropriate judicial body, having regard to the tribunal's determination and to any other circumstances, considers it reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.

5 (2) Sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) apply if, on an application to the tribunal under subparagraph (1)(a) –

(a) the tribunal considers that, having regard to the present condition of the mobile home, it is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the site, but

10 (b) it also considers that it would be reasonably practicable for particular repairs to be carried out on the mobile home that would result in the mobile home not having that detrimental effect, and

(c) the occupier indicates to the tribunal that the occupier intends to carry out those repairs.

(3) In such a case, the tribunal may make an interim order –

15 (a) specifying the repairs that must be carried out and the time within which they must be carried out, and

(b) adjourning the proceedings on the application for such period specified in the interim order as the tribunal considers reasonable to enable the repairs to be carried out.

- (a) within the 21-day period—
- (i) the owner applies to a tribunal for a refusal order, and
- (ii) the occupier receives a notice of the application from the owner, and
- (b) the tribunal rejects the application.
- (4) If the owner applies to a tribunal for a refusal order within the 21-day period but the occupier does not receive notice of the application from the owner within that period—

- (b) the first condition is accordingly to be treated as satisfied.
- (5) A notice of proposed sale must include such information as may be prescribed in regulations made by the Welsh Ministers.

 - (b) such other information as may be prescribed in the regulations, in the form prescribed in them.
- (3) But if the proposed occupier consents in writing to the documents and other information concerned being provided by a date (“the chosen date”) which is less than 28 days before the completion of the sale and assignment of the agreement, the occupier must provide the documents and other information to the proposed occupier not later than the chosen date.

- (2) The relevant evidence is –

- 15 (3) The new occupier must, as soon as reasonably practicable, notify the owner of the receipt of the mobile home and assignment of the agreement.
- (4) The owner may not require any payment to be made (whether to the owner or otherwise) in connection with the gift of the mobile home, and the assignment of the agreement, as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1).
- 20 (5) The Welsh Ministers may by regulations prescribe procedural requirements to be complied with by the owner, the occupier or the new occupier in connection with the gift of the mobile home, and assignment of the agreement, as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1).
- 12 (1) Where the agreement is not a new agreement, the occupier is entitled to give the mobile home, and assign the agreement, to a member of the occupier's family (the "proposed occupier") without the approval of the owner if –
- 25 (a) the occupier serves on the owner a notice (a "notice of proposed gift") that the occupier proposes to give the mobile home to the proposed occupier, and
- (b) the first or second condition is satisfied.
- 30 (2) The first condition is that, within the period of 21 days beginning with the date on which the owner received the notice of proposed gift ("the 21-day period"), the occupier does not receive a notice from the owner that the owner has applied to a tribunal for an order preventing the occupier from giving the mobile home, and assigning the agreement, to the proposed occupier (a "refusal order").
- 35 (3) The second condition is that –
- (a) within the 21-day period –
- (i) the owner applies to a tribunal for a refusal order, and
- (ii) the occupier receives a notice of the application from the owner, and
- (b) the tribunal rejects the application.

- (4) If the owner applies to a tribunal for a refusal order within the 21-day period but the occupier does not receive notice of the application from the owner within that period –

Re-siting of mobile home

- 13 (1) The owner is entitled to require that the occupier's right to station the mobile home is exercisable for any period in relation to another pitch forming part of the protected site
- 25 ("the other pitch") if –
- (a) on the application of the owner, the appropriate judicial body is satisfied that the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier's original pitch and that it is reasonable for the mobile home to be stationed on the other pitch for that period, or
 - 30 (b) the owner needs to carry out essential repair or emergency works that can only be carried out if the mobile home is moved to the other pitch for that period, and either –
- 35 (i) on an application by the owner the appropriate judicial body is satisfied of that need and that the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier's original pitch, or
 - (ii) the urgency of the need means that it is impracticable to make an application before the mobile home is re-sited.

- 5 (2) In a case where sub-paragraph (ii) of paragraph (b) of sub-paragraph (1) applies, the owner must immediately make an application to the appropriate judicial body and if the appropriate judicial body is not satisfied as mentioned in sub-paragraph (i) of that paragraph the owner must immediately secure that the mobile home is returned to the original pitch.
- 10 (3) If the owner requires the occupier to station the mobile home on the other pitch so that the owner can replace, or carry out repairs to, the base on which the mobile home is stationed, the owner must, if the occupier requires the owner to do so or the appropriate judicial body on the application of the occupier orders the owner to do so, secure that the mobile home is returned to the original pitch on the completion of the replacement or repairs.
- (4) The owner must pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the occupier in connection with the mobile home being moved to and from the other pitch.
- 15 (5) In this paragraph and paragraph 15 “essential repair or emergency works” means –

- 30 (2) The owner may enter the pitch to carry out essential repair or emergency works on giving as much notice to the occupier (whether in writing or otherwise) as is reasonably practicable in the circumstances.
- (3) Unless the occupier has agreed otherwise, the owner may enter the pitch for a reason other than one specified in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) only if the owner has given the occupier at least 14 clear days' written notice of the date, time and reason for the visit.
- 35 (4) The rights conferred by this paragraph do not extend to the mobile home.

The pitch fee

- 16 (1) The pitch fee can only be changed in accordance with this paragraph, either –
- (a) with the agreement of the occupier, or

- (b) if the appropriate judicial body, on the application of the owner or the occupier, considers it reasonable for the pitch fee to be changed and makes an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.
- (2) The pitch fee must be reviewed annually as at the review date.
- 5 (3) At least 28 clear days before the review date the owner must serve on the occupier a written notice setting out proposals in respect of the new pitch fee.
- (4) A notice under sub-paragraph (3) which proposes an increase in the pitch fee is of no effect unless it is accompanied by a document which complies with paragraph 22.
- (5) If the occupier agrees to the proposed new pitch fee, it is payable as from the review date.
- 10 (6) If the occupier does not agree to the proposed new pitch fee—
- (a) the owner or the occupier may apply to the appropriate judicial body for an order under sub-paragraph (1)(b) determining the amount of the new pitch fee,
- (b) the occupier must continue to pay the current pitch fee to the owner until such time as the new pitch fee is agreed by the occupier or an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee is made by appropriate judicial body under sub-paragraph (1)(b), and
- 15 (c) the new pitch fee is payable as from the review date but the occupier is not to be regarded as being in arrears until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed or, as the case may be, the 28th day after the date of the appropriate judicial body's order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.
- 20 (7) An application under sub-paragraph (6)(a) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the review date but no later than 3 months after the review date.
- (8) Sub-paragraphs (9) to (12) apply if the owner—
- 25 (a) has not served the notice required by sub-paragraph (3) by the time by which it was required to be served, but
- (b) at any time afterwards serves on the occupier a written notice setting out proposals in respect of a new pitch fee.
- (9) A notice under sub-paragraph (8)(b) which proposes an increase in the pitch fee is of no effect unless it is accompanied by a document which complies with paragraph 22.
- 30 (10) If (at any time) the occupier agrees to the proposed pitch fee, it is payable as from the 28th day after the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (8)(b).
- (11) If the occupier has not agreed to the proposed pitch fee—
- 35 (a) the owner or the occupier may apply to the appropriate judicial body for an order under sub-paragraph (1)(b) determining the amount of the new pitch fee,

- (b) the occupier must continue to pay the current pitch fee to the owner until such time as the new pitch fee is agreed by the occupier or an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee is made by the appropriate judicial body under subparagraph (1)(b), and
- 5 (c) if the appropriate judicial body makes such an order, the new pitch fee is payable as from the 28th day after the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (8)(b).
- 10 (12) An application under sub-paragraph (11) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 56 days beginning with date on which the owner serves the notice under subparagraph (8)(b) but no later than 4 months after the date on which the owner serves that notice.
- 15 (13) A tribunal may permit an application under sub-paragraph (6)(a) or (11)(a) to be made to it outside the time limit specified in sub-paragraph (7) (in the case of an application under sub-paragraph (6)(a)) or in sub-paragraph (12) (in the case of an application under subparagraph (11)(a)) if it is satisfied that, in all the circumstances, there are good reasons for the failure to apply within the applicable time limit and for any delay since then in applying for permission to make the application out of time.
- (14) The occupier is not to be treated as being in arrears –
- 20 (a) where sub-paragraph (10) applies, until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed, or
- (b) where sub-paragraph (11)(b) applies, until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed or, as the case may be, the 28th day after the date of the appropriate judicial body's order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.
- 25 (15) Sub-paragraph (16) applies if a tribunal, on the application of the occupier, is satisfied that –
- (a) a notice under sub-paragraph (3) or (8)(b) was of no effect as a result of subparagraph (4) or (9), but
- (b) the occupier nonetheless paid the owner the pitch fee proposed in the notice.
- 30 (16) The tribunal may order the owner to pay the occupier, within the period of 21 days beginning with the date of the order, the difference between –
- (a) the amount which the occupier was required to pay the owner for the period in question, and
- (b) the amount which the occupier has paid the owner for that period.
- 35 (1) When determining the amount of the new pitch fee particular regard is to be had to –
- (a) any sums expended by the owner since the last review date on improvements –
- (i) which are for the benefit of the occupiers of mobile homes on the protected site,
- (ii) which were the subject of consultation in accordance with paragraph 21(1)(e) and (f), and

- (iii) to which a majority of the occupiers have not disagreed in writing or which, in the case of such disagreement, the appropriate judicial body, on the application of the owner, has ordered should be taken into account when determining the amount of the new pitch fee,
- 5 (b) any deterioration in the condition, and any decrease in the amenity, of the site or any adjoining land which is occupied or controlled by the owner since the date on which this sub-paragraph came into force (in so far as regard has not previously been had to that deterioration or decrease for the purposes of this sub-paragraph),
- 10 (c) any reduction in the services that the owner supplies to the site, pitch or mobile home, and any deterioration in the quality of those services, since the date on which this sub-paragraph came into force (in so far as regard has not previously been had to that reduction or deterioration for the purposes of this subparagraph), and
- 15 (d) any direct effect on the costs payable by the owner in relation to the maintenance or management of the site of an enactment which has come into force since the last review date.
- (2) But no regard is to be had, when determining the amount of the new pitch fee, to any costs incurred by the owner since the last review date for the purpose of complying with provisions contained in this Part which were not contained in the Mobile Homes Act 1983
- 20 in its application in relation to Wales before the coming into force of this Part.
- (3) When calculating what constitutes a majority of the occupiers for the purposes of subparagraph (1)(a)(iii) each mobile home is to be taken to have only 1 occupier and, in the event of there being more than 1 occupier of a mobile home, its occupier is to be taken to be whichever of them the occupiers agree or, in default of agreement, the one whose
