Dear William

Re: Failure to respond to request for information

Please accept my apologies for the delay you experience in receiving the information requested by the Petitions Committee.

I acknowledge that our internal procedures for responding to enquiries failed in this instance and therefore have instructed an internal review be undertaken into the reasons for the delay in providing a response and will ensure that lessons are learnt and where appropriate action taken to resolve the issues highlighted.

I hope this provides you with reassurance that we are taking action to address the issues identified.

Yours sincerely

Mr Stephen HARRY
