Amendment 244 tabled by Carl Sargeant AM on 13 June 2014 has been withdrawn. This amendment replaces amendment 244. The purpose of this amendment is to insert a new subsection into section 52 to specify that a homelessness strategy must include provisions relating to specific actions, planned and expected by the local authority, in relation to specific persons considered to be in particular need. The effect of this amendment is to ensure that homelessness strategies make specific reference to actions that are expected to be taken by public authorities, voluntary organisations and others specified in section 52(3), in relation to those in particular need of support, including prison leavers, young people leaving care, people leaving the armed forces, hospital or after treatment for mental disorder as an inpatient and those receiving mental health services in the community.
