Dear William

Thank you for your recent letter on behalf of Albert Fox and his fellow petitioners suggesting that old railway lines are used as walkways/cycle routes.

There is no official scheme in place to enable the relevant bodies to carry out a project such as the one suggested by Albert Fox and his fellow petitioners, however my tourism officials would welcome a business case that can demonstrate the tourism potential of suitable routes outlining a clear funding package and delivery model.
