Dear Expert Adviser

Finance Committee's legacy – Expert advisers

As we near the end of the Fourth Assembly, the Finance Committee is assessing its impact and the effectiveness of its work during this Assembly.

The Committee will dissolve in April 2016 in anticipation of the Assembly elections, and as part of its legacy, the Committee is looking back at its programme of work, highlighting areas for further scrutiny in the Fifth Assembly and suggesting ways for the next Finance Committee to effectively engage with its stakeholders.

In your capacity as an expert adviser to the Committee, Members would welcome your views on your experience of engaging with the Committee, including its ways of working, the work it has undertaken, and the impact it has had. The Committee would be keen to hear what your expectations of the role were, and if your experience met these expectations. Members would also be interested in your thoughts on the benefits of having an expert adviser to the Committee, and if this is something that should be considered on a permanent basis or if advisers to specific streams of work is more workable.

I would be grateful if you were able to provide a short written submission to the Committee by 8 January 2016. The Committee has also prepared a survey to assist with the consideration of its legacy and we would encourage you to complete this and share with your colleagues.

I look forward to receiving your response.

Yours sincerely,
