Dear Jocelyn,

During the scrutiny of the Tax Collection and Management (Wales) Bill we have discussed the importance of developing a greater awareness of tax devolution in Wales and I said that I would be undertaking further engagement work. I am now writing to let you know that I have today launched my “Welsh Taxes: A Conversation” engagement programme. In support of this I have published the latest in a series of Welsh Government Treasury Papers and have invited views on the soon-to-be established Welsh Revenue Authority (WRA) and on a Taxpayers’ Charter for Wales.

Further details can be found on the Welsh Government’s website by following the link below. I have also arranged for a display about this to be in the Neuadd from today where copies of the latest Treasury Paper will be available.

Yours sincerely,
