Dear Adrian and Matthew,

I thought I would write further to my recent letter in response to your report on Equality Impact Assessments.

In my letter of 26 October, I outlined the Welsh Government response to the recommendations in the report. Our teams have since met to discuss the report and agreed it would be helpful to clarify one point in relation to recommendation four.

The recommendation is addressed to public bodies in Wales. I wanted to confirm that Welsh Government accepts this recommendation as it relates to Welsh Government as a public body.

The response of other public bodies to that recommendation is, of course, a matter for them. However, as I noted in my previous letter, we are keen to work with other public bodies to share practice in this area.

Yours sincerely,

Cyfarwyddwr Cyffredinol Dros Dro / Interim Director General
