12 January 2024

Dear Peredur,

I am writing to inform you that a meeting of the Finance: Interministerial Standing Committee (F:ISC) will take place on 25 January in Edinburgh, although we are awaiting final agreement of the arrangements.

The focus of the meeting will be on economic and fiscal priorities. I will be providing an update on the Welsh Government Draft budget 2024-25 and outlining the difficult decisions we have taken to ensure our spending plans support critical public services.

I will also be pressing the Chief Secretary to the Treasury (CST) for clarity on the changes we can expect to our 2023-24 budget settlement in the UK Supplementary Estimates in February, including confirmation of whether we will receive consequential funding as a result of public sector pay awards in England.

Looking ahead, it is likely this will be the last F:ISC before the UK Spring Budget. I will be making the case for investment in Welsh Government priorities, as well as continuing to press for UK Government support to protect public services. There will also be a discussion on the UK Government preparations for the next UK Spending Review. I will be seeking assurances that my officials will be engaged in this work which is due to conclude in the Autumn.

The meeting will also have a focus on tackling poverty. This is an opportunity to discuss the economic and fiscal actions being taken across nations as well as consideration for joint-working.

I will be meeting separately with the CST to discuss Wales-specific spending pressures and the economic outlook.

I will report to the Committee on the outcome of the meeting.
