

First Minister's Questions – Plenary – 13 September 2016: FM responding to Michelle Brown question on Brexit - “I think the Member has to accept her party did not win the election. They’ve already lost one Member in record time. Frankly, I’m not going to be lectured by a party when not all of its Members actually live in Wales—talk about commitment to our country. There are people who don’t live in our country, and yet still want, apparently, to have to be paid to do so. That’s just totally ridiculous.”
