

I envisage that you will have had many responses with regards to permitting members living outside Wales to claim expenses for accommodation in Cardiff. I shall, therefore, keep my view very short: Members who wish to have the ability to claim expenses must have their main home in Wales.