

Equality, Local Government and Communities
Committee
National Assembly for Wales
Cardiff Bay
Cardiff

14 December 2016

Dear colleague

The Equality, Local Government and Communities Committee has agreed to undertake an inquiry into human rights in Wales. This follows on from the Fourth Assembly Communities, Equality and Local Government Committee's short inquiry into the Future of equality and human rights in Wales, and is also informed by the Committee's consultation on priorities which ran over summer 2016.

Terms of reference

In order to assist us in our work we would welcome your views on any or all of the following points:

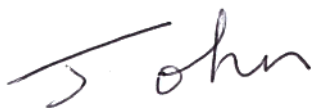

- the impact of the UK's withdrawal from European Union on human rights protection in Wales,
- the impact of the UK Government's proposal to repeal the Human Rights Act 1998 and replace it with a UK Bill of Rights, and
- public perceptions about human rights in Wales, in particular how understandable and relevant they are to Welsh people.

Please send your views to: SeneddCommunities@assembly.wales by Friday 10 February 2017.

Further information on how to contribute to the consultation and details of the Assembly's policy on disclosure of information can be found on the Assembly's webpages: www.assembly.wales/consultations

Yours faithfully,
