Equality and Human Rights Commission

The Equality and Human Rights Commission, while not providing a formal response, wish to draw the Committee's attention to the following information:

Equality and Human Rights Commission Chair David Isaac's comments in response to the publication of the Great Repeal Bill, including a letter to the Secretary of State for Education and Minister for Women and Equalities, titled: Great Repeal Bill: A positive vision for equality and human rights in Britain: <https://www.equalityhumanrights.com/en/our-work/news/great-repeal-bill-response>

The Commission's 5 point plan on how Britain can keep and strengthen its status as a world leader on equality and human rights after we leave the European Union. We shared the document with some Committee Members at the recent stakeholder session.
