Introduction

This paper provides an update on the most recent developments on Brexit of relevance to Wales. It includes sections on the work of the Assembly and Welsh Government; EU; UK; and Scotland and Ireland. The period covered is 27 September – 11 October, although reference is made to later events where information is available at time of final drafting.

2. Developments in Wales

National Assembly for Wales
External Affairs and Additional Legislation Committee

The External Affairs and Additional Legislation (EAAL) Committee is the lead Committee in the Assembly for co-ordinating the Brexit-related activities of Committees.

The most recent sessions of the EAAL Committee were:

- 2 October: European Union (Withdrawal) Bill - consideration of evidence and future work, and informal meeting with the Constitutional and Legislative Affairs Committee to discuss the European Union (Withdrawal) Bill.

- 9 October: European Union (Withdrawal) Bill - consideration of evidence and future work.

On 27 September a debate was held in Plenary on the EAAL Committee Report on the Future of Regional Policy and the Welsh Government’s response to it.

On 11 October a debate was held in Plenary on the EAAL Committee's report on the implications of Brexit for Welsh ports.

On 12 October the Chair attended the Inter-parliamentary dialogue on Brexit, in the House of Lords. Also present was Robin Walker MP, Parliamentary Under Secretary of State at the Department for Exiting the European Union.

Regular updates on the work of the EAAL Committee are posted on the Assembly Blog: https://assemblyblog.wales/tag/european-union/.
